10 killed, scores injured in bus accident in HP

SHIMLA, Aug 6:

Ten persons were today killed and scores of others injured when a packed bus fell into a deep gorge at Nagori in the Chopal area of Shimla district, 140 kms from here.

Six persons died on the spot while four succumbed to injuries on way to the hospital, police said, adding, the death toll could rise as conditions of some was stated to be critical.

The State-run Himachal Road Transport Corporation bus was carrying 50 passengers from Shimla to Pahlog. The mishap took place when the driver tried to reverse the vehicle to give way to another bus coming from opposite side and fell into a deep gorge, police said.

The injured were rushed to hospitals at Nerwa and Chopal while some seriously injured persons have been referred to IGMC hospital here.

Police said six bodies have been recovered from the spot and injured persons were extricated from the wreckage of the bus with the help of local people. (PTI)

JKLTF discusses demands

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Aug 6: A day-long session of All Jammu, Kashmir and Ladakh Teachers' Federation (JKLTF) was held here today under the chairmanship of its president, Balwan Singh Jamwal, to discuss the problems of the teaching fraternity.

The representatives of the Central Executive Committee body also participated in the meeting. While addressing the session, president of the Federation, Balwan Singh, expressed serious concern over the present normless transfer policy causing a lot of harassment to the honest and dedicated teachers. He demanded the Government to make a fool proof transfer policy and be adhered to it.

The members also demanded the Government to bring back all the masters working outside the home districts for last 3 to 4 years, to their home districts.

All the participants in one voice demanded from the Government the post of Director School Education to be from the School Education Department.

The meeting highlighted other demands like cash-in-lieu benefit for the teaching fraternity on the pattern of other State Government employees, filling all vacant posts of teachers, masters, lecturers and non-teaching staff, release of salary grants timely, exemption of teachers from extra academic duties, providing authority to CEOs to transfer master within their districts and granting senior teacher grade to trained undergraduate teachers.

The president of the Federation requested the Deputy Chief Minister Tara Chand to intervene personally to resolve the genuine demands of the teaching fraternity.

HC to inaugurate e-court

MUMBAI, Aug 6:

For the first time in its history, the Bombay High Court is introducing an e-court which would entertain petitions on e-mails and totally eliminate paper work, official sources said today.

Being set up as a pilot project, the e-court, presided by Justice Nitin Jamdar, would be inaugurated on August 15 and take up company matters to start with.

Later, such court would also entertain other petitions besides hearing company matters, the sources said.

All matters on the Original Side pertaining to Company Court arising out of proceedings under provision of section 391 of Companies Act, 1956, will be accepted through e-filing from August 5, according to Mangesh Patil, Registrar-Judicial.(PTI)

HC directs GMC to fill vacant posts in 2 months

Excelsior Correspondent

SRINAGAR, Aug 6: Jammu and Kashmir High Court directed the Principal Government Medical College, Srinagar, to fill all the posts lying vacant in the Psychiatric Diseases Hospital within a period of two months.

A division bench comprising Chief Justice M. M. Kumar and Justice Dhirej Singh Thakur directed the GMC authorities to fill 11 posts in teaching faculty, 4 Registrars and 39 paramedical vacancies within two months by sending the requisition to the Public Service Commission or any competent authority.

The bench directed the GMC to make effective arrangements for disposal of bio-medical wastes within 24 hours which otherwise are being disposed off after a week.

"It would be unsafe to allow biomedical wastes to stay for seven days either in the Hospital premises or even nearby areas," the bench said.

The court also asked the authorities to take all the measures for ensuring hygienic conditions in the Psychiatric Hospital.

The court further directed the GMC Principal to file status report with regard to these orders in the first week of October this year.
