Adarsh: Maha, Centre may reply to plea against Shinde: HC

MUMBAI, Sept 2:

Bombay High Court today said the Centre, Maharashtra Government, CBI, and Adarsh Society may file their responses to a plea seeking that Union Home Minister Sushilkumar Shinde be added as an accused in the housing society scam case.

According to the application filed by social activist Pravin Wategaonkar, Shinde, who had handled documents of the controversial Adarsh Housing Society during his tenure as Maharashtra chief minister, owns a benami flat in the plush 31-storey highrise in south Mumbai.

The housing society has been embroiled in the scam for alleged irregularities.

A division bench of Justices PV Hardas and PN Deshmukh today asked Wategaonkar to serve a copy of his application to respondents (Union and State Governments, CBI and Adarsh Society).

"The respondents may file their reply affidavits, if they find it necessary, by Sept. 19," the court said.

The application was filed by Wategaonkar as part of his public interest litigation seeking a probe by Enforcement Directorate and Income Tax departments into alleged money laundering. (PTI)
