

3-member panel to probe illegal mining

NEW DELHI/LUCKNOW, Aug 7: senior UP minister said inquiry was going on and the truth would come out soon.

"An inquiry is being conducted and the truth will come out soon," UP Minister Brahma Shanker Tripathi told reporters in Lucknow.

The Local Intelligence Unit(LIU) report sent to UP Government had claimed that wall of under-construction mosque was demolished in the presence of SDM Jewar and that Nagpal, SDM (Sadar), was not at the spot. Both Jewar and Sadar fall under G B Nagar.

The Akhilesh Yadav Government, which has drawn flak for the suspension, has refused to revoke its decision and chargedheeted the officer.

Besides the LIU report, the District Magistrate, GB Nagar had stated in his report to the State Government that Nagpal had not got the wall of any religious place demolished.

Meanwhile in Delhi, the over 4,700 strong IAS Officers' Association sought changes in rules including prior sanction of the Centre before any officer is suspended by the State Government.(PTI)

28-year-old Nagpal, a 2010-batch IAS officer, was suspended on July 27 by the UP Government ostensibly for ordering demolition of wall of an under-construction mosque.

Seeking to downplay a local intelligence report which said that Nagpal was not present during demolition of the wall, a
