12 bovine animals rescued

Excelsior Correspondent
UDHAMPUR, Aug 8: Udhampur Police today foiled new modus operandi of smuggling bovines in special containers fabricated above the half body of coal loaded trucks bearing fake number plate.
Acting on reliable information, a Police Party from Police Station Kud laid a surprise naka near Kud main bazaar and intercepted a truck bearing registration number JK03C-453, which was on its way towards Srinagar.
During thorough search of the truck, Police noticed a special container fabricated in the upper portion of the truck body above the load of Coal which was further subjected to thorough search. During search, Police found 12 bovine animals packed in that container. These animals were rescued and vehicle got seized.
Further, during the verification of the registration of truck, Police party found that the number plate was also fake and the actual registration number of the truck was JK03C-7131.
Both the bovine smugglers namely Mohin Hussain Khan of Qazigund, Anantnag and Rayees Ahmed Dar of Qazigund, Anantnag were arrested on the spot.

Suriya Vihar, Laxmi Nagar plunge into darkness

Excelsior Correspondent
JAMMU, Aug 8: The Suriya Vihar and Laxmi Nagar Muthi have plunged into darkness after the local transformer developed a snag yesterday.
The residents of the two colonies in an appeal to the PDD authorities have demanded immediate installation of new transformer so that the power supply is restored to the area.
They warned that in case the department failed to install the transformer by tomorrow the people will be left with no alternative but to come to streets. Meanwhile, BJP leaders Omi Khajuria, Suraj Parkash Padha and Mukesh Sharma have urged the PDD authorities to take immediate steps in installing the transformer in the area failing which the people will resort to road blockade tomorrow.
They said that it is difficult to pass even an hour without the electricity in this hot and humid Summer and any delay in installation of transformer will invite public wrath.

"Besides, 14 Indian fishermen with four boats are in the custody of Sri Lanka on charges of smuggling narcotics and contraband," the reply said. (PTI)

Situation not conducive for return: AMCCC

Excelsior Correspondent
JAMMU, Aug 8: All Migrant Camps Coordination Committee (AMCCC) has warned those leaders of community who are hobnobbing with various agencies for return of displaced people to Valley without seeing the ground situation there.
The AMCCC which held a meeting here today under the leadership of Desh Rattan said that terrorism in the State has gained a new lease of life and the recent killings of Indian soldiers on borders and army men as well as police personnel in the Valley is a testimony to it.
It said those taking of return were harming the interests of migrants who have suffered a lot due to turmoil in the state.
The meeting also held the Government responsible for Jagti episode and said had the Police post been installed earlier a precious life could have been saved.
It also accused those community leaders who selected the Jagti as a residential colony for migrants despite the opposition by various organizations as the area was totally cut off and far away from city.

It said that the Government played fraud with community on employment package and it never showed any sincerity in its implementation and demanded that one Government job for each displaced family. R L Sharma, Raj Nath Pandita and K V Pandita among others attended the meeting.
