Man arrested for murder of wife

EXECUTIVE CORRESPONDENT, JAMMU

A 28-year-old woman from Udhampur was arrested by the police on Saturday evening for murdering her own husband in his own house in Udhampur. The woman, identified as Dipali Singh alias Seema, stabbed her husband to death in their residence located at Udhampur town.

The case was registered under Section 302 of Indian Penal Code. The police said that the victim, Dipali Singh, attacked her husband with a knife, resulting in his death. Thesekmed was pronounced dead at the scene of the crime by a team of doctors from the District Hospital, Udhampur.

The arrested woman, 28-year-old Dipali Singh, was taken to the police station in Udhampur for further investigation. The police are investigating the case to establish the circumstances surrounding the murder and the motive behind it.

Free medical camp organised

EXECUTIVE CORRESPONDENT, KATHUA: A medical camp was organised at Kathua on Monday to provide free medical aid to the poor and needy. A total of 150 patients were examined and treated during the camp.

The camp was inaugurated by the District Commissioner, Shailender Gupta, who stated that such camps are essential for providing medical assistance to those who cannot afford it. He also praised the efforts of the medical professionals who volunteered their time to serve the community.

Relief leaders to hold protest 'fast unto death'

EXECUTIVE CORRESPONDENT, JAMMU

A group of relief leaders and activists have announced that they will hold a protest 'fast unto death' to demand immediate action from the Centre for the demolition of the Babri Masjid in Ayodhya.

The leaders, led by Vijay Vashishtha, a prominent leader of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), have said that they will continue the protest until their demands are met. They have called for the demolition of the Babri Masjid and the setting up of a Shyama Sundaram temple on the site.

During the protest, the leaders will observe a 24-hour fast and will deny themselves food and water. They have also called for the collection of signatures from people from all over the country to support their cause.

The leaders have also announced that they will hold a press conference on Monday afternoon to discuss their demands and the steps they will take in the near future.