While highlighting the “Make in India” campaign, Mr. Ganai said that India’s economy had taken a quantum leap and the country’s growth rate had increased. He said that the government had taken several measures to promote industrialisation and growth, and it was high time that the private sector also took the lead in this regard.

He also said that the government was focusing on skill development and upskilling the workforce to make them employment-ready. He urged the private sector to play a proactive role in this regard.

Meanwhile, Commerce Commissioner Mahajabeen Ganai today exhorted on adopting a mechanism for industrial and entrepreneurship development. “We should provide a conducive environment for industry and entrepreneurship growth,” she said.

The Secretary gave a patient hearing to the members of Plus 2 Committee. He also directed them to complete the examination soon.

Anil Paba also charged the successive administrations of the government for being biased against the Jammu region and said that many lecturers had been promoted in other districts for more than a year.

He said the government should review the system of promotion which was biased against the Jammu region. He also stressed on providing due share to the Jammu region.

Pritam Sharma and Pt Rajesh Kadam also expressed their concerns and the need for promoting the garment and clothing industry in the State.

Meanwhile, Mohammad Sultan Dar, Chief Secretary, PDD was asked to regulate the construction of garment and clothing industries in Bandipora.

The speakers on the occasion thanked the Secretary for his time and said that the programme would go a long way in providing a platform for the entrepreneurs and innovators.

The programme which was organised by the Foundation of the Jammu and Kashmir Bank was attended by the officers of various banks.
