Candle marches can’t wash sins of Congress: BJP

JAMMU: Nov 15: A candle march in the premises of Congress office at Chinar Park here today conveyed the message that Congress party is alone responsible for the present situation of the State and people of the State.

In a statement, a representative of the Jammu Congress party said that candle-march is an innovative idea, but it is unfortunate that the congress party is not able to digest the fact that Congress party is solely responsible for the present situation of the State by its wrong policies and decisions.

The representative also said that despite the fact that Congress got 32 seats in the last assembly elections, but the performance of the Congress Government was not satisfactory. The state is going to the Polls and people are not satisfied with the performance of the Congress Government. He said that the Congress party is solely responsible for the present situation of the State.
