Excelsior Correspondent

DyCM, Ministers, others express concern over killing of civilians in Pak firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, the Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, and the Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, have expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, while addressing the media persons, said that the Border Security Force (BSF) has fixed up four targets on the Indian side. The BSF has already confirmed the deaths of four civilians in cross-border firing at Ramgarh Sector of Poonch and three civilians in cross-border firing at Nowshera Sector of Jammu.

The Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

The Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

Excelsior Correspondent

DyCM, Ministers, others express concern over killing of civilians in Pak firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, the Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, and the Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, have expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, while addressing the media persons, said that the Border Security Force (BSF) has fixed up four targets on the Indian side. The BSF has already confirmed the deaths of four civilians in cross-border firing at Ramgarh Sector of Poonch and three civilians in cross-border firing at Nowshera Sector of Jammu.

The Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

The Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

Excelsior Correspondent

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, the Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, and the Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, have expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, while addressing the media persons, said that the Border Security Force (BSF) has fixed up four targets on the Indian side. The BSF has already confirmed the deaths of four civilians in cross-border firing at Ramgarh Sector of Poonch and three civilians in cross-border firing at Nowshera Sector of Jammu.

The Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

The Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

Excelsior Correspondent

DyCM, Ministers, others express concern over killing of civilians in Pak firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, the Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, and the Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, have expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, while addressing the media persons, said that the Border Security Force (BSF) has fixed up four targets on the Indian side. The BSF has already confirmed the deaths of four civilians in cross-border firing at Ramgarh Sector of Poonch and three civilians in cross-border firing at Nowshera Sector of Jammu.

The Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

The Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

Excelsior Correspondent

DyCM, Ministers, others express concern over killing of civilians in Pak firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, the Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, and the Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, have expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, while addressing the media persons, said that the Border Security Force (BSF) has fixed up four targets on the Indian side. The BSF has already confirmed the deaths of four civilians in cross-border firing at Ramgarh Sector of Poonch and three civilians in cross-border firing at Nowshera Sector of Jammu.

The Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

The Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

Excelsior Correspondent

DyCM, Ministers, others express concern over killing of civilians in Pak firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, the Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, and the Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, have expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing.

The Dy Commissioner of Police, Srinagar, Singh Slathia, while addressing the media persons, said that the Border Security Force (BSF) has fixed up four targets on the Indian side. The BSF has already confirmed the deaths of four civilians in cross-border firing at Ramgarh Sector of Poonch and three civilians in cross-border firing at Nowshera Sector of Jammu.

The Chairperson of the Postal Department, Muneer Ahmad, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.

The Dy Commissioner of Fire and Rescue, DS Bhalla, has expressed concern over the civilian killings in cross-border firing. He said that the Indian Army should open a dialogue with Pakistan to avoid civilian casualties.