Sham takes stock of public grievances

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU: July 30: Minister for PHE, Irrigation and Flood Control, Shabir Ahmad Choudhary today interacted with the people in Banihal area and a number of grievances were highlighted.

The Minister took stock of the immediate and long term issues of the people in the area by highlighting the matters of importance for the people.

Villagers hailed from Sol Koh, Bhati, Bakshi Kadal, Panthi, Kausar, Bhati, Bhera, Keshi, Aliak, Udayb, Thaik of Banihal and others were pinned about their concerns regarding road connectivity and Development of the area.

Street vendors, small traders, farmers, shop owners, students, doctors, employees of government departments and local leaders also presented their grievances.

Triple-A Performing Arts organises workshop

Excelsior Correspondent

The workshop was inaugurated by the Minister of Culture Government of Jammu and Kashmir and Advisor to the government of Jammu and Kashmir, Abdul Rashid, under the chairmanship of Raj Kiran. A tiny number of those present on the occasion were Amin, Sanjiv, Raju, Anjum, Altaf, Abn, Anee, Arf, Sanjiv, Arif, Anjum, Amin, Raju, Anjum, Arf, Sanjiv, Arif, Amin, Raju, Anjum, Arf, Sanjiv, Arif, Amin, Raju, Anjum, Arf, Sanjiv, Arif, Amin, Raju, Anjum, Arf, Sanjiv, Arif, Amin.

A workshop on Jogy lifestyle programme

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU: July 30: JKHCBA has become a cause of worry of the people in the area.

The organization was conducted by the Secretary of the JKHCBA Prem Chander.

The arrested lady has been booked along with others for the police to register a complaint against the same.

Housewife found dead, parents allege murder

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU: July 30: A housewife belonging to Jaitly area was found dead in a house in Jaitly area.

Udhampur: July 30: A young housewife was found dead in a house in Jaitly area. The body was found in a house in Jaitly area.

A woman from Jaitly area of Udhampur district was found dead in a house in Jaitly area. The family members and relatives of the victim were not able to identify the dead body.

The deceased alleged that his family was found dead in the house.

The family and relatives of the victim were not able to identify the dead body.

The deceased was identified as a family member of the victim and was sent to the J&K Medical College Hospital in Udhampur for postmortem examination.

The police team arrested the victim and his family members for the postmortem examination.

Bani Zone facing shortage of teachers, people protest

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU: July 30: Villagers of Bani protest against the shortage of teachers in the area.

The people of Bani protest against the shortage of teachers in the area.

The people of Bani protest against the shortage of teachers in the area.

Rezimuddin Bhat., a resident of Bani, said that the people were facing a lot of problems due to the shortage of teachers.

The people of Bani protest against the shortage of teachers in the area.

The people of Bani protest against the shortage of teachers in the area.

Shuman, a resident of Bani, said that the people were facing a lot of problems due to the shortage of teachers.

The people of Bani protest against the shortage of teachers in the area.

The people of Bani protest against the shortage of teachers in the area.

The people of Bani protest against the shortage of teachers in the area.

The people of Bani protest against the shortage of teachers in the area.