Sehyog Charitable Trust opening coaching centre for poor students
Excelsior Correspondent
JAMMU, Apr 12: Sehyog Charitable Trust is opening coaching centre for poor students on nominal rates at Ram Vihar Janipur on April 15.
Sehyog Charitable Trust Chairman Danish Mishra said that the Trust in its new endeavor is launching low paid education for the students belonging to the poor section of the society and for this he has sought helping hand from the educationists, who can voluntarily help the Trust in this effort.
"Students belonging to the poor section of the society can't compete with the students belonging to the high class family as they can't spend huge money on their studies. We provide education to the students from poor section of the society on very nominal charges", Mishra informed.
