the International Border and Line of Control are covered for the recruitment in Reserve Police Battalions; the Home Ministry has covered the youths of the areas falling within 10 kilometers from the IB as well as LoC for being eligible for the recruitment criteria. Generally, the people living within five kilometers from IB and LoC are treated as the border dwellers.

"The battalions will be fully raised within a period of two years," sources said, adding that criteria for recruitment of the youth will be same as is applicable in the Reserve Battalions.

The Ministry of Home Affairs has asked the Jammu and Kashmir Government to maintain complete transparency in the recruitment. The MHA has also asked the Government to set the process of raising the two battalions in motion as early as possible after completing the requisite formalities. The State Government, according to sources, has been advised to send regular feedback to the MHA on progress of raising the two new battalions.

Those who sabotaged Amarnath movement are now invoking it: Dr Jitendra investigation is must to restore people's faith in the same, he added.

On the CBI probe, he said "we have no problem and the Centre can only order the CBI probe if State Government writes to it".

Dr Jitendra Singh said that the interrogation should be of minimal possible time and after questioning for two three hours the youth should be allowed to go home.

Regarding the Nowshera issue where people are demanding district status, the Union Minister said "after the yesterday's announcement by the State Government I feel the people are satisfied with it".

He also complimented Prime Minister, Narendra Modi showing his concern towards the armed and para - military forces who announced that Government will bear all the expenses of education of martyrs' children and removed the cap of Rs 10,000 in this regard. The nation is indebted to Army and para military forces, he added.

He said this year a 20 -day long celebrations will be held all over the country and this year a campaign for public welfare schemes all over the country.

During the 20 day long celebrations beginning from the Ambedkar Jayanti on April 14 total 115 districts will be given the status of inspirational districts all over the country and Prime Minister will attend the function in one of these districts on April 14. In J&K two districts have been selected for this purpose after making a scientific analysis.

On Rahul Gandhi's temple visits, he said these visits are an affront to the Indian voter.

Dr Jitendra Singh said, the Indian voter of 2018 is mostly the young voter who goes by reasoning and conviction and therefore, it is naive to think that he can be carried away by the tricks of the past. It is a pity, he said, that Rahul Gandhi has refused to learn from the outcome of his visits to 29 temples during the Gujarat election campaign and is once again resorting to same "failed" strategy by visiting five temples in just two days.

Dr Jitendra Singh called upon the party workers to win people's confidence by identifying with them and by developing a free-frank rapport with the youth through transparency and sincerity.

Despite arbitrator's nod, resumption of work on Ratle Power Project unlikely in near future

J&K State Power Development Corporation are resolved amicably the arbitrator issued directions for fresh assets mapping through IIT Delhi, which is going to depute its team anytime during next month".

Notwithstanding the green signal from the arbitrator, the PDP-BJP Government has yet not started exploring options for resumption of work on the project, which was abandoned by Hyderabad based company nearly four years back citing law and order problems and certain unresolved issues with State Power Development Corporation, sources informed.

"No major discussion has been initiated by the Government on this vital issue so far despite being aware of the fact that a long procedure will have to be followed after working out alternate mechanism to pave the way for resumption of work on the project", they further informed, adding "it seems that Government has also lost interest in the project which otherwise would go a long way in meeting the electricity requirement of the State".

"Besides resumption of work, reducing cost of the power project is also one of the major concerns

Sehrai, cop's sons join militancy

"The family has lodged a missing report with us. His brother Rashid Ashraf Khan arrived at the police station today afternoon. He told us that his brother Khan is missing since yesterday," said a police official.

The family, as per police, has stated in the missing report that Junaid had went for Friday prayers and had told his family that he will return in the evening after repairing his mobile phone at Lal Chowk.

A photo of Junaid Ashraf alias Amaar Bhai, holding an AK 47 assault rifle and wearing an armor vest went viral on social media today. The message with

Violence in Nowshera after police resorts to lathi-charge, teargas shelling leader from Jammu Rajiv Chuni addressed the gathering and expressed their view point. While some members were in favour of calling off agitation, the majority decided to go ahead with the ongoing bandh and protest.

After the meeting was over at around 11.45 am, the members including a large number of youth took out peaceful protest march from Patel Chowk in the town and then they moved towards Tehsil office complex to start dharna and protest there. A large number of police and CRPF men had already been deployed by the Administration in the entire town since early morning.

The Police party led by Additional SP Nowshera Master Popsy and SHO Insp Karan Chalotra stopped the protesting people to move ahead. The police had also raised barricades there to stop them. There was exchange of heated arguments between the police men and youth and it was followed by minor scuffle between two sides and then lathi-charge by police.

DC Rajouri, Dr Shahid when contacted said that people were not allowing the offices and banks to open. They were again moving to the tehsil complex and SDM office with the same inten-

As the youth resorted to heavy stone pelting on cops, the police then opened teargas shelling on the mob. The situation went out of control and some youth mounted on the roof top of the nearby Bar and Restaurant and started throwing empty bottles on the police men. The police then fired some rounds of guns in fire to disperse the mob. A youth Bindu (ex-Sarpanch), Chowki received bullet injury on his leg. The youth resorted to heavy stone pelting on cops from all the sides.

SHO, Nowshera Inspector Karan Chalotra, who was leading police party became first victim and was injured seriously after a stone hit his head. Bleeding profusely he was rushed to local hospital. A Sub Inspector Ashish Choudhary, Adtl SP Master Popsy, ASP Rajouri Mohd Yousuf, ASI CRPF Parmanand, Constable Rajesh Kumar and Constable Mohd Shafi were also injured. SDO Intiaz sustained minor injury as a bottle hit his arm.

DC, Shahid Iqbal Choudhary who was standing in front of a shop along with some police officers and Tehsildar in the main bazaar, was hit by an empty bottle thrown from the roof top of a building by some youth. He sustained injuries and was rushed to local hospital. The injuries were not so serious as Dr Shahid was wearing head gear. He sustained injuries with broken pieces of glass. After first-aid in SDH Nowshera, the DC along with SDM, Tehsildar and other police officers went to Dak Bangalow to review situation.

The JAC members alleged that many youth were waylaid and allegedly beaten up mercilessly by cops. Even the elderly persons were not spared by them. They alleged that policemen were also pelting stones. The police fired more than a dozen rounds in the air and over four dozen tear gas shells were lobbed on public during their operation. The people ran for their lives. Smoke of teargas was seen all over the town. The women and children had tough time as many teargas shells landed in houses of the people besides lanes and by-lanes.

The civilians injured in police action included, Ashok Kumar from Nowshera, I C Chibber from Nowshera, Dainik Jagaran reporter Bhuvneshwar Kumar, Ramesh Kesar from Hind Samachar, Atal Chand from Chowki, Bindu Ex-Sarpanch

Police requested the Tehreek-e-Hurriyat chairman Mohammad Ashraf Sehrai and families of other youth who have joined militant ranks to persuade their sons to "shun the path of violence" and return to their homes.
