

Native village of Mohd Rafi remembers the legend

CHANDIGARH, July 31: Several events were held in Kotla Sultan in Punjab's Amritsar district, the native village of Mohammed Rafi, to mark the 33rd death anniversary of the legendary playback singer.

Rafi's 96-year-old childhood friend Bakshish Singh also paid a tribute to the late singer.

"We organised a function in the village including the one at village school. A number of people and Rafi sahab's fans thronged to pay tribute," Bakshish Singh's grandson Jodh Singh Samra told over phone.

A function was organised in the school in which children took part in singing competition.

Samra, district president of the Youth Akali Dal, said that Bakshish Singh was quite hale and hearty and clearly remembers the days spent with Rafi.

"He clearly remembers Rafi Sahab. My grand father told us that he used to call Rafi ji by the nick name of Fika. He had written his name on a mango tree. The two used to spend a lot of time together in the childhood," Samra said.

He said that the village is trying to do its own bit to keep the memory of the singer alive.

Rafi was born in Kotla Sultan village, about 30 kilometers from Amritsar in Punjab and about 250 kilometers from here. Born on December 24, 1924, Rafi died of a heart attack in Mumbai on July 31, 1980. He was honoured with the Padma Shri in 1967.(PTI)
