bagged first place in visual arts competition.

School Principal, Jyoti Asija while congratulating the students, advised them to work harder to achieve goals.

SC refuses interim relief to BCCI, agrees to hear its plea

NEW DELHI, Aug 7:

The Supreme Court today refused to grant interim stay on Bombay High Court verdict declaring as illegal and unconstitutional the BCCI's two-member probe panel set up to look into spot-fixing and betting charges in the IPL tournament.

A bench of justices A K Patnaik and J S Khehar, however, agreed to hear Board of Control for Cricket in India's (BCCI) petition challenging the high court's judgement and issued notice on its plea.

The bench asked Cricket Association of Bihar, on whose plea the high court had delivered its verdict, to file its response on BCCI's petition within two weeks and posted the matter for hearing

Formidable India 'A' up against talented Aussies in opener

PRETORIA, Aug 7:

A formidable India 'A' with a lot of senior team regulars will be facing an upbeat Australia 'A' in their first match of the tri-series cricket tournament here tomorrow.

A keen contest can be expected as some of India's established youngsters like Cheteshwar Pujara, Shikhar Dhawan, Rohit Sharma and Suresh Raina will be facing the future generation of Australian cricketers.

Australia will go into the match on a confident note having beaten hosts South Africa 'A' by three wickets in the tournament opener at the LC de Villiers Stadium here yesterday.

India 'A' will be taking on the Australians at the same venue tomorrow to mark the beginning of a tour which is seen as a dress rehearsal on bouncy strips for the team's young batting turks for their tour of the country at the end of the year.

While the likes of Rohit Sharma and Shikhar Dhawan, who are expected to open the batting in ODIs will be keen to get accustomed to the pace and bounce of the wicket, it will be an acid test for Suresh Raina.

The UP batsman's technique has been found wanting on pitches which has a fair amount of pace and bounce and he would ideally like to turn the tables on this tour.

India 'A' skipper Pujara will like to use this tri-series to prove the selectors that he is good enough to be persisted with in the limited overs format despite his twin failures in Zimbabwe.

The Australian team's batting is heavily dependant on their senior internationals like Shaun Marsh and Aaron Finch. Left-handed Marsh's 136 off 137 balls was instrumental in his team's victory against South Africa on the other day. Marsh's skipper Finch also made a useful contribution of 62.

The other players to look forward to in the Australian line-up are talented all-rounders Glenn Maxwell and Nathan Coulter-Nile apart from Indian-origin fast bowler Gurinder Sandhu.

India are likely to test a new crop of fast bowlers including MP pacer Ishwar Pandey and Punjab's Siddharth Kaul who are likely to fight for a spot in the playing XI with Mohammed Shami and Jaydev Unadkat.

After being inexplicably ignored during senior team's recent tour of Zimbabwe, Jammu and Kashmir all-rounder Parvez Rasool will be fighting out for lone spinner's spot in the XI along with Jharkhand left-arm spinner Shahbaz Nadeem. (PTI)

Unmukt, Nayar to lead India-A sides against New Zealand-A

NEW DELHI, Aug 7:

Promising Delhi batsman Unmukt Chand will lead India A team in the three one-day games against the visiting New Zealand A, while Abhishek Nayar will captain the side for three-day and four-day games, starting in Visakhapatnam on August 31.

Chand has also been selected in the squad for three-day and four-day games, a media release from BCCI secretary Sanjay Patel said.

The All-India Senior Selection Committee headed by Sandeep Patil met in Mumbai today to pick the squads for the two 'Tests' and three one-day games. All the matches will be held in Visakhapatnam.

The opening match would be a three-day affair from August 31 to September 2, followed by a four-day game from September 5 to 8. The three one-day games are scheduled for September 11, 13 and 15.

The visit by New Zealand would be followed by a tour by the West Indies A team and all the matches of the latter series will be played in four venues in Karnataka -- Bangalore, Mysore, Hubli and Shimoga - from September 17 to October 13, according to Board sources.

The Squad for three-day and four-day games: Abhishek Nayar (Mumbai, Capt), Jivanjyot Singh (Punjab), Unmukt Chand (Delhi), Vijay Zol (Maharashtra), Manpreet Juneja (Gujarat), V Jagdish (Kerala), C M Gautham (Karnataka), Dhawal Kulkarni (Mumbai), Intiaz Ahmed (UP), Aniket Choudhary (Rajasthan), Shrikant Wagh (Vidarbha), Lalaj Saxena (MP), Rakesh Dhruv (Gujarat), Sarabjeet Ladda (Punjab).

Sania-Jie advance in Rogers Cup

TORONTO, Aug 7:

Sania Mirza and her new partner Jie Zheng came from behind to beat Natalie Grandin and Darija Jurak and advance to the second round of the WTA Rogers Cup, here.

The fifth seed Indo-Chinese pair registered a 4-6 7-6 (5) 10-2 win over the South African-Croatian team in the opening round of the USD 2,369,000 Premier hard court event.

There was little to separate the two teams but Sania and Jie outplayed their opponents in the Super Tie breaker to run away with the win.

They will now fight it out with Georgia's Oksana Kalashnikova and Alicia Rosolska of Poland for a place in the quarter-finals. (PTI)

Tips from Dhoni helped in Zimbabwe: Kohli

NEW DELHI, Aug 7:

Star batsman Virat Kohli today said the tips he picked up from skipper M S Dhoni in the West Indies proved beneficial for him while leading a young Indian team in Zimbabwe, where they inflicted a 5-0 series whitewash on the hosts.

Kohli had captained the Indian side in three One-dayers in the West Indies when Dhoni was sidelined after hurting his hamstring in the first match of the tri-nation series.

"He (Dhoni) is a guy who doesn't say much. But I keep talking to him about different situations and what I could do and how should I keep myself calm in pressure situations while captaining the side. It helped me chatting to him in the West Indies when he wasn't playing and I was captaining the side. All the tips he gave me really helped me," Kohli said. (PTI)

A student being felicitated by the dignitaries during debate and essay writing competition organized by Army at Kalakote in Rajouri.

Army organizes debate, essay writing competition

Excelsior Correspondent

RAJOURI, Aug 7: Under Reasi based Rashtriya Rifles Headquarters, Rashtriya Rifles at Kalakote organized a debate and essay writing competition for school children, here today.

The event was organized with an aim to provide the students a platform to showcase their skill. The participating schools included Government Schools from Sialsui, Solki, Diyala, Khargala and Bhatara.

The competition was inaugurated by Anil Kumar Gujral, Principal Government Higher Secondary School Sialsui, who also presented a welcome address, while Commanding Officer of RR Battalion in his closing address emphasized on the need to develop skills of public speaking and motivated the participants to take maximum benefits out of such events.

In debate competition, the first prize was given to Bomesh Singh of GHSS Sialsui, while the second prize went to Rekha Sharma of GHSS Sialsui and the third prize was taken by Udbhav Sharma of GSS, Khargala.

In essay writing competition Anjali Kumari of GHSS Sialsui clinched first place, while Afsana Kossar of GHSS Solki bagged second place and the third place went to Deepak Kumar of GHSS of Sialsui.

Later-on, speaking on the occasion, Gujral threw light on the need of continuous up-gradation of technical, extracurricular skills in present era.

CO, RR Battalion gave closing address, while Principal GHSS Siasui along with the staff distributed prizes among the winners.

Saina, Sindhu begin campaign with wins in Badminton Worlds

GUANGZHOU, Aug 7:

Saina Nehwal today started her campaign for an elusive medal at the World Championships with a crushing straight-game victory over lower-ranked Olga Golovanova of Russia in the women's singles competition of the prestigious event here.

London Olympics bronze medallist Saina, who had reached the quarterfinals of previous editions in 2009 and 2011, brushed aside Olga 21-5 21-4 in just 23 minutes to set up a clash with 15th seed Thai Pornpit Buranaprasertsuk in the quarterfinals tomorrow.

Saina has a 5-0 record against Pornpit but the Indian will have to be on guard as past records do not count and such matches could turn out to be tricky sometimes.

Earlier in the day, P V Sindhu overcame a fighting Kaori Imabeppu of Japan to secure her place in the third round of the women's singles competition.

Both Saina and Sindhu had got a bye in the first round.

Seeded 10th, Sindhu, who won the Malaysia Grand Prix in May this year, had to sweat it out for an hour and 11 minutes before she could prevail over unseeded Imabeppu 21-19 19-21 21-17.

World number 12 Sindhu, who made her debut at the World Championships today, will next take on the winner of the match between second seed Wang Yihan of China and Indonesian Belaetrix Manuputi in the next round. (PTI)

Junior women team's bronze-medal feat inspiring: Oltmans

NEW DELHI, Aug 7:

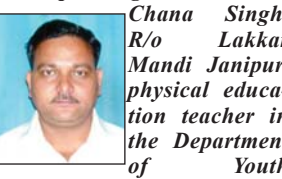

The women team's bronze-medal winning effort in the Junior World Cup couldn't have come at a better time for Indian hockey as the feat has created a positive atmosphere in the country ahead of the senior men side's crucial Asia Cup campaign in Ipoh, Malaysia.

For Indian hockey's High Performance Director Roelant Oltmans, who is also the interim chief coach of the men's team, any success is inspiring.

"Of course, everyone in the country feels very happy when our teams are performing. We are one big hockey family in the country. All the players of the senior team were following the girls bronze medal play-off match against England and when they won we all started dancing and jumping in celebration," Oltmans said here today.

"Their feat is inspiring because I feel every success inspires to achieve another success," the Dutchman said during the felicitation of the junior women's team, which won the country's first-ever bronze medal in the Junior Women Hockey World Cup in Monchengladbach, Satpal Singh Manhas, S/o Chana Singh, R/o Lakkar Mandi Janipur, physical education teacher in the Department of Youth Services and Sports (DYSS), who has qualified cricket umpiring examination conducted by the School Games Federation of India (SGFI) in the year 2012-13.
