Doda village without electricity for 9 months
Excelsior Correspondent

DODA, Aug 8: Blasoo, a small village in district Doda, is without electricity supply for the last nine months.

Despite repeated pleas to the PDD authorities, district administration and the local MLA, the supply has not yet been restored.

According to a local Bal Krishan Manhas, the power supply had got snapped due to snowfall and consequent breakage of poles, last winter. Since then we have visited the DC office and local MLA several times highlighting our problem but no action has been taken to restore the power supply, he lamented.

We appeal to administration Doda to provide electricity supply in the village, said Vishal Singh Manhas, district vice president Shri Ram Sena.

District president Youth JKNPP Neeraj Singh Manhas threatened protests if electricity supply to Blasoo village is not restored within 2 days.

Meter reader of PDD caught red handed taking bribe
Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Aug 8: State Vigilance Organization has caught a meter reader of PDD red handed for taking bribe at Dyansar Bari Brahmana today.

According to reports the Vigilance Department on the basis of a complaint of one Chet Ram that the metre readers of PDD Vasudev Singh was demanding bribe from him, the organization sleuths laid a trap today and caught the metre reader red handed taking Rs 1500 as bribe.

He was arrested by sleuths of the Vigilance Organization and a case under relevant sections of prevention of Corruption Act was registered against him.

Hiranagar College takes out rally on Biodiversity Conservation
Excelsior Correspondent

KATHUA, Aug 8: Government Girdhar Lal Dogra Memorial Degree College, Hiranagar today conducted a plantation drive and also took out a rally on the theme "Biodiversity Conservation" in collaboration with World Wide Fund for Nature, J&K.

Some important medicinal plants like Chandan, (Santalum Sps), Rudraksh, (Aegle Sps) Bil-Patri (Cinnamom Sps) Tej Patta, Timbru, Elaichi and some ornamental plants like Euphorbia Sps were planted in the college premises.

Professor K C Badgal, Principal of the college briefed the students about the importance of plants. He described the "Trees as the lungs of the society".

Later, a rally was also taken out from the college campus which culminated at the Hiranagar Morh. The objective of the rally was to spread awareness among the common masses about the degrading biodiversity and its conservation.

The whole event was organized under the supervision of Professor Vijay Kumar Chandan, Head, Department of Botany and Dr Deepshikha Sharma, Head, Department of Environment Sciences.

Stolen truck recovered
Excelsior Correspondent

UDHAMPUR, Aug 8: A truck stolen from Udhampur on August 4, was recovered today by Police at Jammu where it was found abandoned.

According to Police, a complaint was lodged yesterday in Police Station Chenani by one Sanjay Kumar son of Govind Ram of Ballian, Udhampur regarding theft of his truck, which was parked near his house on the night of August 4. Next day he found the truck missing and after searching it for two days, he ultimately lodged a police report.

Utilizing human and technical intelligence, Police party recovered the truck from Jammu, which was concealed there for further disposal. However, noticing the movement of Police party, the thief managed to escape leaving behind the abandoned truck. Police parties have been dispatched to apprehend the absconding thief.

Poppy straw seized, smuggler arrested
Excelsior Correspondent

UDHAMPUR, Aug 8: Udhampur Police today seized 1.3 kgs of Poppy Straw (Bhuki) from a truck and also arrested the driver who was smuggling the contraband from Kashmir to Jammu.

Acting on reliable information, Police party intercepted a truck bearing registration number JK02A-0785 near Jakheni. During thorough search of the truck, 1.3 kgs of Poppy Straw was recovered.

The accused driver namely Sat Pal of Gadhal, Reasi, who was transporting poppy straw from Kashmir valley to Jammu, was arrested and the vehicle seized.

A case has been registered in this connection under NDPS Act at Police Station Udhampur.
