No successful infiltration, BSF on high alert: Goswami scenario at high level meet

"I have not seen this report.. I do not have any knowledge about any such report," Mr Goswami said when asked by a reporter about any such report with the Centre.

"I have come here to take a review of the border situation and that of Jammu region - we have been briefed", Mr Goswami said.

"I also met the people of the region," he said.

"I have noted down all the points -- After returning back we will examine these points in MHA -- After that what is needed to be done -- will be decided," Mr Goswami said.

He reviewed security scenario on the IB including the incidents of firing from Pakistan with the senior BSF officers.

He added that he would submit a comprehensive report to the Union Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) on security scenario in Jammu and Kashmir including the borders on his return to New Delhi.

Though the Home Secretary didn't visit Kishtwar, which reeled under curfew for eighth consecutive day today, he was reported to have assessed the security scenario of Kishtwar at the high level meeting of the officers.

He said some issues of land compensation of the farmers were pending, which would be discussed with the authorities.

"I have come here with a team of senior officials of Home ministry to inspect and review the security situation along the International Border and also meet jawans--we have been briefed," Mr Goswami said.

The senior officials briefed Mr Goswami about the increase in ceasefire violations, firing, snipping incidents besides infiltration attempts from Pakistan.

During his interaction with the troops deployed along the borderline with Pakistan, Mr Goswami told them that they are doing a "good job".

Meanwhile, at Octroi Post, Mr Goswami accompanied by IG BSF, Jammu Frontiers, SS Tomar was briefed on the situation by Commandant G Dhalwal. He inter-acted with BSF officials and jawans and praised their dedication for safeguarding the international boundaries.

The BSF officers were understood to have appraised the Home Secretary about frequent ceasefire violations on the International Border by the Rangers and their attempts to push militants into this side. They also briefed Mr Goswami about the militants awaiting across the IB to infiltrate into this side.

Later, Mr Goswami visited the BSF Headquarters at Paloura and CRPF Headquarters at Bantialab and had inter-action with senior BSF officers. DIG BSF Jammu NS Jamwal briefed Mr Goswami about the prevailing scenario in the region and activities of the BSF especially anti-infiltration and anti-militancy measures.

The CRPF officers also briefed the Home Secretary about their role in security scenario of the State.

In the afternoon, Mr Goswami held a high level security review with top brass of para-military forces, Intelligence agencies, civil and police administration. The security review lasted two and a half hours (3 pm to 5.30 pm) and stressed for strict surveillance against anti-national and anti-social elements.

The officers of para-military forces, Intelligence agencies, civil and police administration gave their assessment of the situation to the Home Secretary.

Mr Goswami also took assessment of the requirements of all agencies and assured them that they would be considered and fulfilled shortly. He lauded the agencies for maintaining close liaison and making successful the Amarnath yatra.

at State Guest House). Sources said the senior officers of civil and police administration appraised the Union Home Secretary about security scenario in the region in Kishtwar and its aftermath in which curfew was clamped in eight out of 10 districts of Jammu region. They appraised him of present situation, which was peaceful in entire region excepting Kishtwar, where curfew remained in force for eighth consecutive day today.
