Contractors vital part of construction system: Wani

Excelsior Correspondent
SRINAGAR, July 1: Minister for R&B Abdul Majid Wani said that contractor class is a part and parcel of construction system and plays vital role in constructing projects of public importance in the country and State.
 The Minister was interacting with a deputation of contractors led by Gulam Jeelani Purza. The deputation apprised him about the problems being faced by them in their day to day business activities.
 The Minister said that the Government is aware about the problems of the contractors' community and is committed to solve them on priority. He said that efforts are afoot to find out ways and means to solve the burning issues of contractors. He said preference would be accorded to local contractors while allotting work on mega projects of the State.
 The Minister said that funds would be made available as soon as received from the concerned quarters. The funds under additionality would also be rationalized and released soon, he maintained.

 Referring to Rs. 710 crore announced by the Prime Minister during his recent visit of the State, the Minister said the amount would help the State Government for completing road projects under PMGSY which were pending for the want of funds for land acquisition.
 The deputation projected a charter of demands which include early release of payment for the recently completed works, filling Sales Tax returns, saying that it should be submitted by the concerned DDOs from department to department, exemption of petty and D-Class contractors from e-tendering, exemption from double taxation, implementation of works schedule 2012 and double sided agreement.
 Commissioner Secretary, R&B Tanveer Jahan was also present in the meeting.

NMC asks Govt to clear payments, bills in treasuries

Excelsior Correspondent
JAMMU, July 1: President of the National Mazdoor Conference (NMC) Subash Shastri today impressed upon the State Government to make early arrangement for clearing the outstanding of employees, pensioners and other sections of the society pending in treasuries for months together.
 Addressing a well attended meeting of NMC activists at Gandhi Nagar, Shastri said that it was surprising that payment of the bills and others dues of the employees, pensioners and others was not being made because of paucity of funds in the treasuries. He pointed out that even the payment of bills of GP funds, DA arrears are not been cleared so far although this amount is hard earned money of the salaried class and pensioners.

 This situation speaks volumes about the non-functioning of the concerned department, Shastri said and hoped that the Chief Minister, Finance Minister and Chief Secretary will realize the difficulties of the salaried class/pensioners and take necessary immediate steps to redress the problem at the earliest.
 Expressing his grave concern over the continuance of pay anomalies of clerical cadre of the State Government, Shastri also urged the Govt to immediately address most genuine demand of the affected employees.
 Others who addressed the meeting, included Rajan Babu Khajuria, Sham Lal Sharma, Anil Singh Slathia, Sunil Kochhar, Rakesh Padha, Surinder Kumar, Ram Lal, Ram Pal Sharma, Barkat Ram, Girdhari Lal Bhagat, Vijay Kumar Bhagat, Jograj and Sukhdev Singh.
