Road connectivity to left over Warwan villages by year end: Kichloo

Excelsior Correspondent

WARWAN (KISHTWAR), July 1: Minister of State for Industries & Commerce and Home, Sajjad Ahmed Kichloo, today said that road connectivity to leftover villages of far-flung and remote areas of Warwan area of Kishtwar will be provided by the end of this year.

The Minister said this while speaking at a public meeting during his two-day whirlwind tour of Warwan area.

Welcoming the announcement of Central assistance of Rs. 710 crore for land compensation under PMGSY, the Minister stated that special attention will be given to Warwan area under the Centre's flagship programme.

"The Government will strive to improve the image of Warwan by improving its connectivity and bringing it on the tourism map of the State," the Minister said, adding that separate funds under Government of India and State Government schemes will be allocated to create tourism-related infrastructure in the area.

By setting up self-sustaining units. For our artisans in Handicrafts sector, incentive-based schemes exist that will be popularized in the region," the Minister said.

Mr Kichloo assured the pony-wallas that he will take up the issue of registration of additional 200 horses and ponies with the administration coordinating the ongoing Amarnathji Yatra. "Already 350 ponies from Warwan area have been registered for Amarnathji Yatra this year. I am hopeful that additional 200 ponywallas will be registered which will bring succour to the poor people of Warwan," he assured.

People presented various demands which included opening of Warwan-Pahalgam Gali, installation of mobile towers for cellular connectivity and upgrading school and healthcare facilities. The people also complained about lack of staff in schools and dispensaries as well as that of medicines in the region.

The Minister assured that he will look into the demands and take immediate action so that instant relief is brought to the people.

Vouching for undertaking winter sports activities in the area, the Minister said private investment in tourism sector will expedite creation of tourism-related infrastructure. This, he said, will have a huge impact on the socio-economic profile of the people residing in Warwan area.

Disclosing that the next District Development Board meeting will be held at Sukhna, Warwan, the Minister said he will continue his effort of extending benefit of Government schemes, especially in social sector, to the poor people residing in the area.

Stating that awareness drives for making young educated youth cognizant about industry-related schemes will be undertaken shortly, the Minister asked Directorate of Industries to initiate process of identifying lines of industrial activities that the people can establish with strong forward and backward linkages. "We have a number of Central schemes like PMEGP and KVIB from which our youth can benefit

Cong victory sure in 2014 under Rahul's leadership: Madan

Excelsior Correspondent

SUNDERBANI, July 1: Madan Lal Sharma, Member Parliament Jammu-Poonch Constituency, today said that Congress will be victorious in 2014 Lok Sabha elections as well as in various State elections.

While addressing a public meeting at Bamliya here, Sharma lauded the leadership qualities of Rahul Gandhi and said that he has made a foolproof and people-friendly strategy for 2014 and if Congress is voted to power, all sections of society will get their due.

He said that only Congress has the visionary leaders like Sonia Gandhi and Dr Man - mohan Singh who joined by young blood Rahul Gandhi are leading the Nation in a balanced manner despite the anti-poor policies of the Opposition particularly BJP who have not only created Lokjams but also did not allow pro-poor legislation like Food-Security Bill.

Responding to the issues raised by Panchayats and general public regarding drinking water, road connectivity, widow pension, education, health care, Sharma directed the sectoral officers to organise camps in the areas like Bamliya and resolve the grievances of the people.

The MP also announced construction of a community hall from his constituency fund at the said place for public use.

Kuldeep Raj Verma, vice-chairman for OBC and MLC Ravinder Sharma also spoke and raised the local issues.

Later, MP opened a langer for Amar Nath, Vaishno Devi and Shiv Khori yatris run by Jimmy Brarar.

Sharma appealed the business community and transporters to take proper care of the tourists and pilgrims like their family members so that they take a good image of State which will boost more tourism in the State.

He also demanded that Shiv Khori should be developed on the pattern of Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Shrine.

Drukpa Buddhists rejoice in colourful Annual Hemis Festival

Excelsior Correspondent

LEH, July 1: The two-day annual Hemis Festival by the Drukpa Buddhists was celebrated at the Hemis Monastery in Leh, with a roaring attendance of over 75,000 guests from all over the world, here.

Blessed by Ladakh's spiritual head, His Holiness the Gyalwang Drukpa, celebrated on the 10th and 11th day of the 5th lunar month, the Hemis Festival marks the birth anniversary of Guru Padmasambhava or Guru Rinpoche, the 8th century Indian guru revered for spreading Tantrayana Buddhism throughout the Himalayas.

The courtyard of Hemis Monastery, the biggest Buddhist monastery in Ladakh, is the permanent venue for the celebrations. Drukpa Buddhists celebrated the legendary Hemis Festival with great enthusiasm. The festival duration is marked as a local public holiday and involves the entire city. Locals dressed up in their finest traditional garb for the occasion.

Plays accompanied by cymbals, long horns and drums were also performed.

This series of mask dances, performed by the monks, demonstrated good prevailing over evil. The monks put on elaborate and colourful costumes and brightly painted masks, the most vital part of the dance. The dance movements are slow, and the expressions grotesque. Healing scent of herbal incense filled the atmosphere.

On the first day of the Hemis Festival, the first dance was setting limit or 13 black hat dancers, followed by sixteen dancers wearing copper gilded masks. Then there was the eight different forms of Padmasambhava followed by Guru Padma Vajra.
