IB writes to Union Home Ministry against CBI on Ishrat case

NEW DELHI, July 5:

Taking strong exception to CBI's alleged "witch-hunt" against its officials in Ishrat Jahan case, the Intelligence Bureau has lodged a strong protest with the Union Home Ministry saying the investigating agency's move would only hurt the morale of the officers of IB.

In a formal letter, IB Director Asif Ibrahim said CBI's move to prosecute its officials in the alleged fake encounter case in Gujarat, would be "disastrous for the morale of IB officers" and would harm the country's internal security.

Sources said Ibrahim wanted to put on record IB's displeasure over CBI's alleged attempt to frame IB officers the alleged encounter that took place nine years ago and wanted Government action over it.

IB has been maintaining that its officials only provided intelligence inputs and had nothing to do with any alleged fake encounter.

Besides, it has also been maintaining that CBI does not have enough evidence to prosecute IB officers, including Kumar, in the alleged fake encounter case.(PTI)

Advani meets RSS chief, says very positive for BJP

NAGPUR, July 5:

Sulking ever since the elevation of Narendra Modi last month, BJP leader L K Advani today made a significant visit to the RSS headquarters here and claimed his meeting with RSS chief Mohan Bhagwat would be "very positive" for the party and the national polity.

Advani, who sat side by side with Modi for the first time in the BJP Parliamentary Board meeting in Delhi yesterday after the Gujarat Chief Minister's elevation, discussed party matters and national politics with Bhagwat.

"This discussion will help us change the national polity considering that assembly elections are being held in five-six states and Lok Sabha polls are also taking place. We will bring about change and take the nation in the right direction," he said after his meeting with Bhagwat where another senior RSS leader Bhaiyyaji Joshi was also present.

"My visit to Nagpur will be very positive for the BJP and the country," he added.

This was Advani's first interaction with the media since he revolted against the appointment of Modi as the BJP's Election Campaign Committee Chairman on June 10. He had resigned from all party posts but Bhagwat had intervened to make him reconsider his decision.(PTI)
