

Case lodged against 6

BJP leaders for 'hate speech'

ALIGARH, July 27:

A case has been lodged against six BJP leaders for alleged "hate speech" during a party meeting in Chandausa area, police said here today.

A case has been lodged against senior BJP leader Satish Gautam, district president of the BJP Yuva Morcha Yatin Dixit and four others for delivering a hate speech during a party meeting there yesterday, they said.

Gautam had addressed a party worker convention at Chandausa town last evening, in which he allegedly used "offensive" and "derogatory" remarks against a particular community.

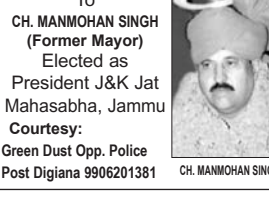

As news of the speech trickled out, a large number of members of the community gathered at the spot and protested against it. Later, police officials were called in to defuse the situation. (PTI)

LNJN National Institute of Criminology and Forensic Science (Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India) Rohini Sector-3, Delhi - 110 085, Ph.: 011-27511571 SELECTION OF CHAIR PROFESSOR The Institute: The LNJN National Institute of Criminology and Forensic Science (NICFS) was set up by the Government of India in 1972 for promotion of Criminology and Forensic Science through education, research, training, publications and international collaborations. The Institute offers joint training courses for officers of the Criminal Justice System and Forensic Scientists, and MA/MSc. courses in Criminology and Forensic Science (in affiliation with Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Delhi). The Institute also carries out research in Criminology and Forensic Science. The Chair: A Chair in the name of Loknayak Jayprakash Narayan was established in 2003 under an endowment received from Department of Culture (Government of India) to conduct research on "peaceful and humane ways of solving crimes". The chair is assisted by a dedicated core team and additional resources may be provided on need basis. Besides conducting research, the incumbent is also expected to contribute to academic activities of the Institute. Selection Procedure: The Central Government has constituted a Search Committee consisting of the following persons to recommend panel of 3 names for selection of the text incumbent. a) Prof. Balraj Chauhan, Chairman Faculty of Law, Lucknow University and former Vice-Chancellor Dr. RML National Law University, Lucknow b) Prof. (Dr.) Vinay Kumar Srivastava, Member Deptt. of Anthropology, University of Delhi Former Principal, Hindu College c) Shri Kamal Kumar, IPS (Retd.), Member Hony. Advisor Administrative Staff College of India, Hyderabad Dy. Inspector General, NICFS is the Secretary of the Search Committee. Candidate: The candidate should hold a Masters' degree with at least 14 years' experience in teaching, research, criminal justice administration or related fields. In addition, the candidate should be able to demonstrate sound knowledge of empirical and doctrinal research methodologies in the form of completed research projects. The candidate should be below 67 years of age as on last date of application. Eligible officers of All India Services/Central/State Government and Judiciary can also apply but will have to ensure that their cadre clearance is received within 2 weeks of the closing date. Serving Officers are eligible for liberalized study leave and benefits at par with Jawaharlal Nehru Fellowship under DOP&T (GOI) OM No. 13023/2/2008-Est (I) dated September 1, 2011. The Institute will prefer research on problems that are contemporary, affect larger sections of society, and lead to crime reduction and/or expedite justice Delivery. On conclusion the research the incumbent must produce in addition to broad recommendations, specific action points, PERT Chart, draft SOPs, proposed forms/returns, etc. The Institute will not bear cost of travel of a candidate if called for interview by the Search Committee. Tenure: Initially for 1 year but may be extended, following annual review, up to 3 years or 70 years of age, whichever occurs earlier. Award: This is "full-time" position and incumbent will receive monthly Fellowship of ₹One lac along with annual Contingency Grant of ₹60,000/-. The incumbent is permitted to receive Leave Salary or Pension, if paid by last employer. Permission of Institute will be necessary for undertaking any outside work other than academic publications and evaluations. Leave and Campus accommodation (subject to availability) will be as per Government Rules. Closing date: Application or nominations addressed to the Secretary of the Search Committee enclosing detailed curriculum vitae (with Photograph), details of past Publications, Research etc. and proposed research plan must reach by 16th September 2013 at the Institute address given on the top. The cover must be super scribed "Application for Jayaparkash Narayan Chair". More than one research proposal may be submitted to enhance chances of selection. Selected scholar would be expected to take up position within 2 months.
