PoK refugees stage protest, nearly 100 courted arrest

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, June 1: Refugees from Pak occupied Kashmir held protest demonstration at Mubarak Mandi and Panjirthi areas in support of their demands and courted arrest here today.

A large number of displaced persons including women under the banner of PoK Refugees Front-1947, 65, 71 led by Rashpal Singh Chib assembled at Panjirthi complex at around 10 am and started protest demonstration there for some time. They were carrying banners and placards depicting their pending demands.

After staging protest dharna near at Panjirthi park outside old office of the Divisional Commissioner, the refugees in the form of a rally moved towards Panjirthi Chowk. They held demonstration there for some time. Some refugees leaders including Rashpal Singh Chib, Ajeet Singh, Capt (Retd) Ishar Singh, Capt (Retd) Jagdish Lal also addressed the gathering.

They strongly criticised the Central and the State Governments for not addressing their long pending issues. They demanded comprehensive settlement of the refugees' issues. They also criticized the role of some bureaucrats and alleged that they were creating hurdles in the final settlement. The Central Government has already sought details and State has to give its recommendations. After staging protest nearly 100 refugees courted arrest before Panjirthi police. The police however, claimed that they were let off after some time.

Cong to continue struggle on 73rd Amendment: Soz

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, June 1: Pradesh Congress Committee (PCC) president Prof Saif-ud-Din Soz has said that Congress Party would continue its struggle for seeking 73rd Amendment with regard to Panchayati Raj Act.

Addressing party workers at Khanabal (Anantnag) today, the PCC chief said that Congress party has already declared that on 73rd Amendment its stand was very clear. The party feels that unless these provisions are incorporated into the Panchayati Act of J&K, the Sarpanchs and Panchs can never be empowered. He claimed that Congress party's struggle for achieving this goal would be continued. He further said that it was in the fitness of things to hold elections to the Local Bodies as early as possible.

Prof Soz claimed that Congress Party would emerge as the single largest party in the 2014 Assembly elections. Responding to local demands, the PCC chief assured that he would take up the matter regarding introduction of certain important subjects at the south campus, with the Chancellor of the Kashmir University. He further assured fulfillment of the other demands.

Prominent among others who addressed the gathering including minister for Haj, Auqaf and Floriculture Peerzada Mohd. Sayed, Minister for Tourism Ghulam Ahmed Mir, Muzaffar Hussain Parry, G.N. Monga, Bashir Magray (all MLCs), Mohd Anwar Bhat and Gulzar Ahmed Wani.

Fake stamps of Chairman JKCA, President NCA Bangluru recovered 'Cricketer' impersonating as Sub-Inspector among 3 arrested

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, June 1: Police today arrested three persons including a 'cricketer' impersonating as Sub-Inspector and recovered fake stamps and letter pads of Jammu and Kashmir Cricket Association and president National Cricket Academy, Bangluru.

Police spokesman said that on May 30, 2013, Mohd Aslam Goni, Chairman of Jammu and Kashmir Cricket Association (JKCA) lodged a written complaint with the Incharge Police Post Bathindi mentioning that a person namely Manoj Kumar, son of Rattan Chand of Harsath Ghagwal approached his office with the forged letter of JKCA and receipt for an amount of Rs 4650.

The complainant further stated that the letter was written on the fictitious letter head of the JKCA with bogus stamp of Chairman of JKCA and the contents of the letter were absolutely not known to him nor any such letter was issued by the complainant. Similarly, a receipt vide which an amount of Rs 4650 was charged from Mukesh Kumar, son of Manoj Kumar was also bearing a bogus stamp of Chairman of JKCA.

On enquiry by the complainant Manoj Kumar told him that letter and receipt were given to him by one R S Bali, who claimed to be serving as Sub-Inspector in the JKP.

Acting on the complaint, police registered a case under Section 420/467/468/471 RPC at Police Station Trikuta Nagar and investigation was entrusted to Incharge Police Post Bathindi SI Mohd Iqbal Chagatta. SDPO East, S S Sambyal was directed by the SSP Jammu, Rajeshwar Singh to closely monitor the investigation of the case.

Yesterday, a police team headed by SI Mohd Iqbal Chagatta under the supervision of SDPO East apprehended one Mohinder Pal Singh Bali, son of Bhupinder Singh of Tral district Baramulla from Guru Teg Bahadur Nagar, Malik Market, who confessed his guilt.

During questioning, Mohinder Pal Singh revealed that he is a good player of cricket and also played many local cricket tournaments but being unemployed he has no source of income. On his disclosure, fake letter pads of JKCA and Bali Cricket Club, one receipt book and three stamps of Chairman JKCA, Sandeep Patil, President NCA Bangluru and president SSD Manoj Sharma each were recovered from his rented room.

During the course of investigation, two more persons namely Ajay Kumar, son of Thakur Dass of Ratnu Chak and Rakesh Sharma, son of Bansil Lal of Sarwal, who prepared fake letter pads and stamps respectively were also arrested.

"The investigation is at preliminary stage and more arrests cannot be ruled out", police spokesman said.

Governor briefed about arrangements for Indian Science Congress

Excelsior Correspondent

SRINAGAR, June 1: Prof. R. C. Sobti, Vice Chancellor, Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Lucknow, and President, Indian Science Congress Association, and Prof. M. P. S. Ishar, Vice Chancellor, Jammu University, called on N. N. Vohra, Governor, at Raj Bhavan, here today.

During their meeting, the Governor, Prof. Sobti and Prof. Ishar discussed the arrangements being made for hosting the next Indian Science Congress by the University of Jammu in February 2014. Both the Vice Chancellors briefed the Governor about the envisaged list of scientists and other dignitaries who are being invited to participate in this mega science event.

The Governor, who is

Chancellor of the Jammu University, observed that this would be a historical occasion for the State which will involve the participation of a very large number of the top most scientists from within and outside the country, who would participate in the Indian Science Congress.

This is the first ever time that this mega science event is being held in Jammu and Kashmir. The Governor noted that he would be discussing this important event with the Chief Minister, Omar Abdullah, and asked Navin K. Choudhary, Principal Secretary to the Governor, to have a detailed discussion with Prof. Ishar to identify the issues for discussion with the State Government.

Navin K. Choudhary, Principal Secretary to the Governor, was present on the occasion.

Fire in rail coach at Udhampur station

Excelsior Correspondent

UDHAMPUR, June 1: A minor fire broke out in a stranded rail coach at Udhampur Railway Station, early this morning. However, no major loss was caused as the fire was minor and immediately controlled by the people there.

According to Railway officials, the fire erupted in a coach that was to be transported to Srinagar. It was kept in the rail yard and since the entire coach could not be accommodated on the transport vehicle, it was being dismantled. The fiber of the coach caught fire due to overheating.

Last Sunday three coaches of Shalimar Express and two coaches of Jammu Tawi-Ahmedabad Express were gutted down at the Jammu Tawi Railway Station.

A Special Investigating Team (SIT) was later constituted to probe the incident.
