Indian economy has resilience to overcome problems: President

INDORE, June 8:

Indian economy has resilience to overcome its problems, President Pranab Mukherjee said today and asked people not to panic by negative sentiments expressed in certain quarters.

"Sometimes we find negative sentiments expressed in certain quarters, but being in economic administration of this country as minister for more than four decades, I am not disappointed," Mukherjee said in his address to the first convocation of IIT Indore.

"If we have registered 5 per cent growth in 2012-13, we should feel concerned but we should not feel panicky because Indian economy has resilience to overcome the problems," he said.

The President said the country's economy grew at 3 per cent during the first Five-Year Plan and then reached 5.5 per cent in
