

Only Hindutva can transform country: RSS chief

MEERUT, June 18: Backing Gujarat Chief Minister Narendra Modi's elevation in the BJP, Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) chief Mohan Bhagwat today said that Hindutva was the only way to bring about change in the country. In a veiled reference to senior BJP leader L. K. Advani and Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar's opposition to Modi, Bhagwat said, "Whether somebody likes it or not, Hindutva is the only way to bring about change in the country. It is where the country's respect lies." "We have changed leaders and agendas, nothing has worked. Politics is not the way to make India a superpower, it is only Hindutva that can do it," the RSS chief said while speaking at a Sangh's programme here. "Pakistan is moving around scot-free after murdering Sarabjit Singh (Indian prisoner)," he said.(PTI)

New financial products needed to push infra development: FM

NEW DELHI, June 18: Development of infrastructure and expansion of financial products such as Infrastructure Debt Funds (IDFs) and takeout finance are crucial to the country achieving 8 per cent growth, Finance Minister P Chidambaram said here today. "...To give thrust to investment in infrastructure sector and to attain GDP growth rate of 8 per cent, there is an immense need for financial products such as IDFs, Takeout Finance and Credit Enhancement scheme to fill the financial gap in the infrastructure sector," he said after launching USD 1 billion IDF scheme of IIFCL here today. "For Infrastructure Debt Funds (IDFs), we should try to mobilise resources from insurance and pension sectors as these funds are available for long term horizon," he said. This is aimed at catalysing investments by way of securitised debt instruments of infrastructure projects.(PTI)

get cheated by Emails/SMSs/Calls promising you money

Have you received an Email/SMS/Call informing you that you have won a lottery or will get huge sums from abroad?

Or have you been offered cheap funds for your business?

Or have you received an email on a letterhead of the Reserve Bank of India with the Governor's photo on it and quoting a senior RBI official's name stating that RBI is holding funds for you which will be released if you pay some amount or part with the important details of your bank account like customer id and password?

Do not believe these. They are fake, howsoever official or attractive they may look. RBI never sends such emails.

- Don't send any money as an initial deposit/ commission/transfer fee to any unknown party in India or abroad.
- Don't reveal your bank account number/details or any other related information to anyone, either on phone or through email.
- Don't enter into any correspondence with any party - Indian or foreign - in the hope of receiving any money from them.
- RBI does not hold funds or accounts for any individual/organisation/trust.
- Inform your friends / family members to be careful.
- Please inform the Cyber Cell/ other Law Enforcing Agency of such fictitious offers.
