Sham inaugurates Panchayat Ghar, lays foundation of tubewell
Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, June 29: Reiterating that the Government is committed to strengthen democratic institutions in the State, Minister for Minister for PHE, Irrigation & Flood Control, Sham Lal Sharma said that an empowered Panchayati Raj system has been established for ensuring effective decentralization of powers at the grass root level.

The Minister was speaking after inaugurating Panchayat Ghar constructed at an estimated cost of Rs 25 lakh under MGNREGA at village Raja Chak town.

Mr. Sham said that the Government has ensured adequate empowerment of the Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) by empowering them with powers of 14 vital departments and said that with an aim to strengthen monitoring of the developmental works regular reviews will be held by cluster of Panchayats.

The Minister while highlighting the importance of proper infrastructure for carrying out the day-to-day activities of PRIs said that the same would be strengthened in every nook and corner of the state in order to facilitate their working and to ensure that democratic decentralization of powers takes place in the State at every level.

He said that the Government is making all out efforts to further strengthen the democratic set up and developmental activities are carried forward with the active participation of the people at the grass root level.

Later, the Minister laid foundation stone of tube well at village lower Raja Chak which will be constructed at an estimated cost of Rs.98 lakh.

He emphasized on judicious use of drinking water. He also directed the concerned agencies for making efforts for preserving the traditional water resources, and revival of the old ponds to further enhance water supply services in the state. He also stressed upon the need of constructing more and more check dams.

Chief Engineer, PHE, K K Gupta, SE Hydraulic Jammu, Rajeev Malhotra, SDM Akhnoor, ACD, District Panchayat Officer, sectoral officers, Sarpanchs and Panchs were also present on the occasion.

Altaf takes stock of Wullar conservation project
Excelsior Correspondent

BANDIPORA, June 29: Minister for Forest, Ecology and Environment, Mian Altaf Ahmad today visited Bandipora and took stock of progress of work under Wullar Conservation Project.

Expressing displeasure over the slow progress of the works, the Minister instructed the officers of Wullar Conservation and Management Authority to accelerate work on the project and ensure that the targets fixed for current year are achieved in full.

The Minister was told that Rs 16.30 crore stands expended on the projects out of Rs. 30 crore released against the total project cost of Rs. 120 crore. It was given out that 6 demo plots over 4.6 hectares of land have been established with 2356 grafted fruit plants while Rs. 1.38 crore have been incurred on fencing of 876 hectares of the lake area.

While reviewing the availability of timber in the district, the Minister was informed that

Saroori lays foundation stone of Panchayat Ghar
Excelsior Correspondent

KISHTWAR, June 29: Former Minister and MLA Inderwal, GM Saroori, today laid foundation stone of Panchayat Ghar at village Loie Dhar, here.

While laying foundation stone, Saroori termed infrastructure development in Panchayats as the first step towards their empowerment.

He said that the Indian National Congress (INC) believes in supremacy of the people and is committed to empower Basic Democratic Panchayati Raj Institutions.

The Panchayat Ghar will be constructed at an estimated cost of Rs 30 lakh under MGNREGA in convergence with Backward Region Grant Fund (BRGF).

He lauded the role of Panchayat representatives in plan formation and directed BDO Kishtwar, Masood Ahmed, BDO Chatroo, Seema Parihar, BDO Drabshalla, Shokat Hayat Mattoo and BDO Thathri, Tahir Malik to ensure people's participation in plan formation and its implementation in later stages.

Saroori also inspected various developmental works under MGNREGA. Later, he held a public Darbar in Mugal Maidan, Loie Dhar, Khaj Gam, Guwari, Rahal Thal area and listened to the grievances of public and immediately reacted to their needs and demands.
