

Modi's projection: RSS leader meets Advani, Sushma, Rajnath

NEW DELHI, Sept 2: Seeking a consensus on Narendra Modi's projection as the party's Prime Ministerial candidate, RSS has held talks with top BJP leaders...

and Murli Manohar Joshi, among some others in the top brass are opposed to it. These BJP leaders are of the opinion that a decision on Modi should be taken after forthcoming assembly elections in Delhi...

Senior RSS leader Suresh 'Bhaiyaji' Joshi held talks yesterday with Advani and Sushma Swaraj, who is said to be opposed to Modi as PM face...

BJP President Rajnath Singh was also present during the meeting that took place at Advani's residence, the sources told reporters.

Joshi is learnt to have discussed with them the need and timing for projecting Modi as the PM candidate.

The meeting was part of efforts to end resistance within the party over Modi's anointment as the prime ministerial candidate.

RSS and VHP are keen that Modi is declared the Prime Ministerial candidate at the earliest but this proposal has hit a roadblock as Advani, Swaraj,
