Court issues summons to Rahul

CHANDIGARH, Sept 3: Congress vice president Rahul Gandhi was today issued summons by a local court on a petition filed by a city-based lawyer objecting to certain reported "defamatory, derogatory" remarks made by him about the natives of Uttar Pradesh and Bihar at an election rally nearly two years back.

Rahul as the then Indian Youth Congress chief, while kicking off party's UP election campaign in Phulpur on November 14, 2011 had reportedly said, "How long will you go and work as labour in Punjab and Delhi, how long will you beg (for work) in Maharashtra?"

The petitioner said, "That the above said statement of the defendant (case Shiv Murti Yadav versus Rahul Gandhi) is clearly defamatory, derogatory statement intending to cause irreparable loss to the image, reputation and prestige of the plaintiff and similarly situated persons."

Judicial Magistrate Jaswinder Singh, issued 'dasti' summons for September 19, "to Rahul Gandhi, General Secretary, AICC c/o President, AICC, 10 Janpath, New Delhi."

The "dasti summons" have been "forwarded to the Court of CMM, New Delhi, Patiala House, for service and return before the date fixed" as the summons issued earlier on August 17 could not be served. (PTI)
