

Agri technocrats hold protest

Excelsior Correspondent
SAMBHA, Sept 5: Jammu Kashmir Agriculture Technocrats Association JKATA (Vijaypur) held a strong protest at Block Office Vijaypur against the State Government for not taking serious steps in regularization of Rehbar-e-Ziraats.

The Association accused the Government of making false promises with them since 2007.

They also demanded amendment in Cabinet decision of August 4, 2011.

The regularization policy which we foresaw as a commendable decision, proved to be an unjust one, which has many loopholes. It has proved to be a mere hoax to the aspirations of the Rehbar-E-Ziraats as many of them have already crossed 42 years of age and rest are uncertain and the State Government is responsible for that.

Dr Sumeet Dutta district Vice president, (Samba) lambasted the Coalition Government for plying nepotism & human rights violation with the Rehbar-i-Ziraats of the State Government.
