PAC takes up CAG report on Agusta Westland issue

NEW DELHI, May 27: Public Accounts Committee (PAC), headed by Union Forest Minister Arjun Ram Meghwal, will take up the CAG report on Agusta Westland issue now going into cabinet other administrative issues.

Two members of the PAC — former Defence Minister A K Antony and his successor Manohar Parrikar will not be present at the meeting. Among those present will be Finance Minister Arjun Ram Meghwal, Union Railways Minister Ravi Shankar Prasad, Chief Minister of Goa Manohar Parrikar, Union Defence Minister Arjun Ram Meghwal, who has also been visiting the PAC meeting in country, Rao Inderjit Singh, Minister for Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution, and the Praini Chhagan Bhujbal from Maharashtra.

As per the schedule, the PAC will take up the CAG report on Agusta Westland issue.

Theunexpected move comes even as A K Antony and Manohar Parrikar were present in the meeting.

Earlier, the PAC had held a meeting in the presence of the three ministers, but did not take up any serious issues at that meeting.

The CAG report on Agusta Westland issue is expected to be referred to the PAC for consideration.

The report was tabled in the Rajya Sabha on Friday, which has suggested that the Government has failed to ensure transparency in the deal. The report also recommended the Union Government to set up a special court to try those who are involved in irregularities in the deal.

The PAC is expected to take up the report in the first or second week of this month.
