4 convicts in Nirbhaya case to be hanged on Jan 22

When the hearing commenced, advocate M L Sharma appeared before the court and said that he was representing Mukesh. However, amicus curiae Vrinda Grover, who on the last date was appointed by the court to represent Mukesh, said Sharma had no authority to represent him. The court heard the arguments from both of them and directed Sharma to produce Vakalatnama (document empowering lawyer) showing that Mukesh authorised him. After the court reserved the order for 3.30 pm on issuance of death warrants, Mukesh's mother entered the court room crying and urged the court to show mercy. The court refused to entertain her. Talking to media persons outside the courtroom, she said her son was framed because he was poor. The court interacted with all the convicts through video conferencing from Tihar jail. The media was not allowed inside the video conferencing room. After the court passed the order, the lawyers and family members of the convicts came out and informed the media about court's order. Victim's parents said they were satisfied with the order. The trial court had earlier directed Tihar jail authorities to seek within a week response from the four death row convicts as to timely completion of the projects", read Circular No.26-GAD dated May 8, 2019. On May 27, the Chief Secretary BVR Subrahmanyam while chairing Committee of Secretaries meeting urged the Administrative Secretaries to undertake tours of the districts to review the status of projects/schemes being implemented by their respective departments and also to listen the grievances of the people. "Initially, almost all the Administrative Secretaries started conducting field visits on weekly basis but with the passage of time they lost interest in this exercise and during the past several months field visits have been conducted by only few of them albeit not on weekly basis", official sources told EXCELSIOR, adding "most of the Administrative Secretaries are preferring to hold meetings in the Civil Secretariat to review the projects in the districts by calling Heads of the Departments instead of paying personal visits which otherwise are imperative to identify the exact reasons behind slow pace of work and to know about the concerns of the people".

Even by calling Heads of the Departments to the Civil Secretariat these Administrative Secretaries are violating the Government directives, which read: "HoDs should not be called to the meetings in the Civil Secretariat frequently and instead other means like video-conferencing be utilized to seek their presence to economize time and for improved service delivery". "What to talk of Administrative Secretaries even Heads of the Departments are avoiding to pay field visits despite the fact that explicit directions in this regard were issued by none else than the Chief Secretary while chairing meetings of Committee of Secretaries", sources said while disclosing that objective behind directing HoDs to pay field visits was to ascertain status of important projects and provide feedback to the concerned Administrative Departments with the copies to the Divisional Commissioners and District Development Commissioners concerned so as to facilitate them to initiate corrective measures in a time bound manner.

Sources stressed, "instead of repeatedly issuing verbal as well as written instructions to the Administrative Secretaries and Heads of the Departments after regular intervals the Government must make them accountable for strict compliance in a time bound manner by initiating every possible step". PIL into currency defaced by K-separatists

A bench of Chief Justice S A Bobde and Justices B R Gavai and Surya Kant was hearing the PIL filed by one Satish Bhardwaj, who has alleged that in 2013 the Jammu branch of RBI exchanged the currency notes amounting to Rs 30 crore allegedly belonging to a separatist group called 'Kashmir Graffiti'. As soon as the matter came up for hearing, the bench asked for Attorney General K K Venugopal, Solicitor General Tushar Mehta or any Additional Solicitor General. When no one appeared, the bench told Bhardwaj that it would take up the matter at the end of the day's work. Bhardwaj said he had approached the CBI for investigation of the matter but nothing has been done so far. The matter was taken up again by the bench for hearing during which Mehta appeared. The bench told Mehta, "He is saying that agencies are not doing anything. The issue may be of national importance. Please have a copy of the petition and look into it." Bhardwaj, appearing in-person in his plea, said, "It is most humbly submitted that the act of Jammu branch of Reserve Bank of India to exchange the defaced/imperfect Indian currency notes worth Rs 30 crore that too which was done by a separatist group of Kashmir with a main aim of destabilising peace and harmony in the region of Jammu and Kashmir and to create an environment of tension and terror in the minds of common residents of the region is illegal and worth of interference of this court."

He said a separatist group in Kashmir in its statement on a social networking site Facebook has claimed to have stamped separatist slogans on Indian currency worth Rs 30 crore between May and August, 2013. Bhardwaj sought court monitored CBI investigation in the case of exchange of defaced/imperfect currency notes amounting to Rs 30 crore by the Jammu branch of the RBI. He said in his plea that exchange of currency notes can only be done as per law and no deliberately stamped currency can be exchanged as per the rules and regulations of RBI. (PTI)

PDP disallowed to commemorate Mufti's death anniversary

Koshin said that the administration was also not allowing them to meet the party president, Mehbooba Mufti. He also alleged that the workers of the other parties were being allowed to meet their leader, "but we have not been allowed to do that so far," he said. He also alleged that the PDP leaders who were released recently were released on conditions. "They were categorically told not to indulge in any sort of activity and not to attend the party meeting on the eve of the death anniversary of Mufti Mohammad Sayeed," he alleged. Some of the PDP leaders, however, went Bijbehara and held prayers at the grave of Mufti. They included MP Nazir Laway and sister of Mehbooba Mufti, Rubaiya Sayeed. Foreign diplomats to visit Kashmir

Around two dozen senior diplomats including Ambassadors from the European Union, Gulf and Central Asian countries are to visit Kashmir. Government agencies have prepared a list of civil society groups, traders, women groups, Panchayat members and Municipal Councilors who will meet the delegates and brief them about the situation in Kashmir. The logistics is being organised by the Army as was done in the case of MEPs who visited in October last year.

Stampede kills 50 at slain Iran Gen's funeral a road and others shouting and trying to help them. Soleimani's funeral was later delayed but no new timing was given. "Unfortunately as a result of the stampede, some of our compatriots have been injured and some have been killed during the funeral processions," he earlier said. In delaying Soleimani's burial, authorities cited concerns about the massive crowd that had gathered, the semi-official ISNA news agency said. A procession in Tehran on Monday drew over 1 million people in the Iranian capital, crowding both main thoroughfares and side streets in Tehran. Soleimani's death has sparked calls across Iran for revenge against America for a slaying that's drastically raised tensions across the Middle East. The US government warned ships of an unspecified threat from Iran across all the Mideast's waterways, crucial routes for global energy supplies. Meanwhile, the US Air Force launched a drill with 52 fighter jets in Utah, just days after President Donald Trump threatened to hit 52 sites in Iran. Early Tuesday, the leader of Iran's Revolutionary Guard threatened to "set ablaze" places supported by the United States over the killing of a top Iranian general in a US airstrike last week, sparking cries from the crowd of supporters of "Death to Israel!" Hossein Salami made the pledge before a crowd of thousands gathered in a central square in Kerman before a casket carrying Soleimani's remains. The outpouring of grief was an unprecedented honor for a man venerated by Iranians as a national hero for his work leading the Guard's expeditionary Quds Force. The US blames him

He also appreciated the entire crew for working hard day and night, in achieving the mission. 8 top political leaders meet LG, lists 15 major demands including Statehood

Mufti Mohammad Sayeed. Though veteran PDP leader Muzaffar Hussain Baig didn't accompany the delegation, sources indicated that the new group has his blessings as his nephew and former PDP MLA from Baramulla Javed Hussain Baig was part of the delegation. After meeting the Lieutenant Governor, Altaf Bukhari told the Excelsior on telephone that they focused on the demands including restoration of Statehood to Jammu and Kashmir, domicile rights on land and jobs for the people of J&K, release of all political detainees lodged both within and outside the UT, release of youth and withdrawal of cases against them, revival of agriculture, horticulture and tourism sectors, industry and restoration of Jammu and Kashmir Bank's Functional Domain. The meeting, according to sources, lasted about one and a half hours and all eight members of the delegation raised their issues individually. Describing the meeting of eight senior political leaders with the Lieutenant Governor as "very significant political development", political observers asserted that this was clear indication of resumption of political activities in Kashmir, which had come to halt (except the BJP meetings) as majority of leadership of NC, PDP and some small groups was under detention since August 5 i.e. for over five months now. "The political leadership of Kashmir, which had not been detained or released after detention, was not coming forward for meetings. Today's meeting of eight prominent political leaders with Murmu was first major political activity amidst indications that this will be followed by more such activities," the observers said. Meanwhile, reliable sources said, a new political front is emerging in Jammu and Kashmir which will comprise leaders from all major political parties as well as smaller groups with core agenda of domicile rights over land and jobs. The front will comprise many former Ministers, ex-legislators and other prominent political and social personalities. The front was likely to be headed by Altaf Bukhari, a prominent political leader and former Finance Minister in Mehbooba Mufti-led PDP-BJP Government and formal announcement to this effect could be made in the next few days, reliable sources told the Excelsior and said final touches are being given to the new front including its name and issues on which it will be floated. However, core agenda of the political party will remain domicile rights for the people of the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir for land and jobs. There was no official confirmation of the new political party by any of the leaders but, according to sources, over 50 prominent political leaders from Jammu and Kashmir were in touch with each other to join the party. They comprised the leaders from various major as well as smaller political parties. The delegation, which met the Lieutenant Governor today, submitted him a 15-point memorandum to Murmu. The memorandum said to win over the confidence of the people of Jammu and Kashmir, the Centre will have to re-examine its decades old policies vis-à-vis Kashmir and ally the apprehensions among people in a just and humane manner. Depending solely on security measures and dealing with peoples' political aspirations through the law and order prism will always have its old tested repercussions, it said. "Since the revocation of Jammu and Kashmir's special status embedded in Article 370 of the Indian constitution and bifurcation of the State into two Union Territories - Jammu and Kashmir with a Legislature and Ladakh without one - the majority of its residents are yet to reconcile with this decision," the memorandum reads. "For the residents of J&K, the issue of statehood holds more emotional importance than legal. Statehood for these people is solidification of the idea of pluralism and respectful coexistence," it said. "In view of keeping the pluralistic ethos and diversity intact, it is more than essential that restoration of statehood to J&K is considered as an immediate requirement for keeping up the spirit of coexistence and allowing this mosaic to continue to shine in this part of the country. "We demand restoration of Statehood including establishment of a Legislative Council and in providing thereto reservation of seats for socially and Economically Backward Classes, art and culture, languages, literature and sports," it said. The memorandum said that economic development can be ensured only if there is normalcy and stability in the region. "It is the assurances given under that Article and the erosion of special privileges that created the situation in the Valley over the past three decades," it said. The delegation also demanded the restoration of J&K Bank's functional domain, reviving agriculture and horticulture sectors, support for industry and manufacturing sector, tourism and allied industries and their revival. "People of Jammu and Kashmir have always seen J&K Bank as a repository of trust and confidence of their economic interests. But unfortunately this trust and confidence seems to have been shaken for the last few years," it said. "Not only its control over financial matters but its overall functioning has been unnecessarily put to a question mark," it added. On the issue of safeguarding rights over land and jobs, the memorandum said that the abrogation of Article 370 and, in particular, annulling Article 35A on account of being "discriminatory" against non-permanent residents and women of Jammu and Kashmir" and it being "an obstacle in the development of the State" has outstanding issues. "This most important issue can be addressed by tangible legal and Constitutional safeguards that can be put in place by virtue of which protection of domicile rights including that of reservation for the permanent residents of Jammu and Kashmir in the matter of employment and that of admissions to professional courses is ensured," it said. The memorandum said that a blend of models like Nagaland, Manipur, Mizoram, Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Meghalaya, Uttarakhand, Himachal Pradesh, and parts of Jharkhand and Chhattisgarh can provide solution for protection of these rights of the people of Jammu and Kashmir. The memorandum also demanded the release of political detainees and said that one of the psychological setbacks to a number of people in Kashmir is that their near and dear ones were detained. "These people were not arrested for committing any violation of law, but were preventive detentions vis-à-vis law and order situation. Now that the life has almost returned to normal, it is a genuine demand that these detainees should be immediately shifted from jails across the country to Jammu and Kashmir and subsequently released," it said. The leaders further said that cases against youth (mostly teenagers), who were detained under different FIRs by the police in the summer of 2016 be withdrawn on compassionate grounds. Some of these youth have got jobs in the police and Army but are being denied a character certificates as there are pending cases against them. "It is requested to withdraw cases against such youth on compassionate grounds and support them integrate into the society", it said. The delegation said it was heartening to see that the Kashmir Valley remained peaceful and no fatalities were recorded due to enhanced security measures but the credit must also go to the people of Jammu and Kashmir who showed extreme maturity while registering peaceful protests. "Fact of the matter is that a majority of people in Jammu and Kashmir feel hurt and there are vocal concerns wherein they feel their decades-long privileges were unceremoniously curtailed," it added. An official handout issued by the Union Territory Government said the meeting of former legislators and politicians with the Lieutenant Governor assumed significance as it has initiated the political process and dialogue with the members of mainstream political parties of the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir. "The Lieutenant Governor while interacting with members of the delegation appreciated their view points and concerns and conveyed that the Government is committed to safeguard rights of the people of Jammu and Kashmir and particularly assured them that the provisions will be made for protecting land of locals and employment avenues in the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir," the handout said. It added that Murmu assured the delegation that administration at all levels will be sensitized to hear grievances, coordinate with popular leaders, address issues and carry out developmental activities in right earnest.
