Hours after Chief Justice of India (CJI) N V Ramana expressed unhappiness over disruptions during virtual hearings due to the use of mobiles, the Supreme Court on Monday asked the advocates and litigants to use a desktop or the laptop with a stable internet connection to join proceedings conducted through video conferencing.

"All advocates and party-in-person are requested to join the CISCO Webex application for joining the court hearing through video conferencing (VC) via a desktop/laptop with a stable internet connectivity, preferably wired, to avoid any disruption and inconvenience to the Hon'ble Judges," the notification issued by the apex court registry said.

As per police sources, a missing report of a girl hailing from Gorkha Nagar area was entered into the daily diary of Bagh-e-Bahu Police Station in the year 2018.

To trace out the missing girl, a team from Police Station Bagh-e-Bahu led by PSI Ahsin Khan and PSI Gurdinder Singh under the supervision of SHO Police Station Inspector Arjun Chib and SDPO East Syed Zaheer Abbas Jafari was constituted.

to ban participation through mobiles.

"Lawyers are appearing using their mobile phones and are not visible. We may have to ban this mobile business. Mr counsel, you are now practicing in the Supreme Court and appear regularly. Can't you afford to have a desktop to argue," the CJI observed in one of the cases.

During the hearing of another case, the bench took note of poor internet connectivity at the lawyer's end and said, "We have no energy to hear cases like this. Please devise a system by which we can hear you. Ten matters are over like this and we are shouting."

The top court has been hearing cases through video-conferencing since March 2020 due to the pandemic and has been relaxing or tightening the conditions from time to time keeping in mind the changing pandemic situation.

The apex court, on January 2, took note of a sudden spike in the number of COVID-19 cases in the country and decided to hear all matters in virtual mode, and from January 7, the benches are sitting at the residential offices of the judges. (PTT)
