Will win Gujarat polls, AAP only in air: Rahul

KOTHUR (TELANGANA), Oct 31:

The Congress has a "solid base" in Gujarat and will win the upcoming assembly polls, former party chief Rahul Gandhi said on Monday, contending that there is "massive" anti-incumbency against the BJP while the AAP is "only in the air" with no support on the ground.

Addressing a press conference here during his Bharat Jodo Yatra, Gandhi said the march is "not a magic wand" but a good first step to connect with the people.

He also ruled out any alliance with the TRS, saying it is "diametrically opposite" to what the Congress stands for.

Dismissal of the challenge posed by Aam Aadmi Party in Gujarat, Gandhi said the Congress has a solid base in the state.

"Congress is fighting the Gujarat elections effectively and the Congress will win the polls. AAP is only in the air. It has nothing on the ground," he told reporters here to questions on his party's prospects in Prime Minister Narendra Modi's home state.

"There is massive anti-incumbency. The media has created a buzz based on the advertisements given by AAP. The Congress party is a solid party in Gujarat. The Congress is going to win the election there," he said.

On when and where he will campaign in the poll-bound states of Himachal Pradesh and Gujarat, Gandhi said, "Kharge Ji is the president of the party and he will decide how I am to be utilised."

In the 2017 Gujarat assembly polls, the Congress had put up a spirited fight and bagged 77 seats to the BJP's 99. However, there have been several defections from the Congress post-2017 and their current tally in the assembly stands at 62, while the BJP's tally has risen to 111.

Many political observers feel that the Congress is on a weak footing this time and with the Aam Aadmi Party being a contender this time, it would be a triangular contest that could dent the Congress' chances.

On a question about the tragedy in Morbi where a bridge collapsed leaving more than 130 dead, Gandhi said he did not wish to politicise the incident.

"I don't want to politicise this incident. People have died here. It is disrespectful for them to politicise this incident, so I am not going to do it," Gandhi said. A two-minute silence was held in memory of those killed in the tragic accident. (PTI)
