

None has guts to cast evil eye on India: Bhatt

MUMBAI, Nov 2: Union Minister of State for Defence Ajay Bhatt today said no one has the guts to cast an evil eye on India and the country is capable of giving an immediate response. He also said India has emerged as a leader in every sphere including the water, land, and air, under the guidance of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. "No one has guts to cast an (evil) eye on us because if anyone dares so, we are capable of giving an immediate response," Bhatt said when asked about China's belligerence in Ladakh. He didn't give a direct reply to the question on China, saying he was not authorised to speak on some issues. Bhatt was speaking to reporters after inaugurating the 'Global Meet on Defence, Transportation and Energy. According to SIPRI (Stockholm International Peace Research Institute), India, for the first time, is in the league of the top 25 countries exporting defence equipment and weapons. "We are supplying equipment, rockets, missiles, fighter jets, tanks, rifles, and ammunition in large quantity. We use to first ask (other countries for these defence products). Today, the world is surprised that we are giving this to others," he said, adding that India is on the path to becoming a global leader. "For the first time, since Modi ji has been at the helm, our country is in the league of top nations which never happened before," he added. (PTI)

Kashmir cleric among 4 booked in Mumbai

MUMBAI, Nov 2: The Mumbai Police have registered an FIR against four Muslim clerics for allegedly hurting sentiments of the Shia community, an official said today. Based on a complaint by a Mumbai-based man, the J J Marg police on Tuesday registered the case against the four accused hailing from Lucknow, Hyderabad, Chennai and Kashmir, he said. "We have registered the FIR after receiving multiple applications. We have asked the complainant to submit the audio/video evidence. No arrest has been made so far. We are conducting a probe into the case," the official from the J J Marg police station said. The complainant claimed that one of the accused had in September supported a Pakistan-based cleric as well as hurt the Shia community sentiments, the official said. The complainant also charged the other three accused with hurting the religious sentiments and speaking against the nation, he said. The FIR has been registered against the accused under Indian Penal Code Sections 153-A (promoting enmity between different groups on ground of religion, race, place of birth, residence, language, etc), 153-B (imputations, assertions prejudicial to national integration) and 295 (injuring or defiling place of worship with intent to insult the religion of any class), the official said.
