

Delhi riots Court frames charges against Tahir Hussain under PMLA

NEW DELHI, Nov 4: The Indian Penal Code regarding the riots.

A Delhi court has framed charges against former AAP leader Tahir Hussain under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA).

The court was hearing a case pertaining to money laundering, registered by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) in connection with the 2020 riots in northeast Delhi.

The court said prima facie, Hussain conspired to engage in money laundering and the proceeds generated from the crime were used for the riots.

Additional Sessions Judge Amitabh Rawat said in an order passed on Thursday, "Thus, I hold that a charge be framed against the accused Tahir Hussain for the offence under Section 3 (offence of money laundering) of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act..."

"I am of the view that there is sufficient material on record, prima facie, creating grave suspicion against the accused for framing charges against him and to proceed further with the trial."

According to the ED complaint, Hussain fraudulently withdrew money from accounts of certain companies owned or controlled by him through bogus entry operators on the strength of fake bills.

Hussain was the ultimate beneficiary of the laundered money and the money obtained through criminal conspiracy was put to use during the riots in February 2020, the ED said in the complaint.

Delhi Police had registered three FIRs against Hussain and others under various sections of
