Savarkar helped British, sought mercy from them out of fear: Rahul

AKOLA, Nov 17: Unfazed by the controversy over his recent remarks against V D Savarkar, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Thursday again targeted the late Hindutva ideologue, claiming that he helped the British rulers and wrote a mercy petition to them out of fear.

Gandhi also dared the Maharashtra Government to stop the Congress's Bharat Jodo Yatra, which is currently passing through the State.

His statement comes in the wake of a few leaders from the ruling parties in the state demanding that the yatra be stopped in the State in view of his remarks against Savarkar.

Addressing a press conference at Wadegaon in Akola district, Gandhi showed documents dating back to 1920 to media persons, claiming that they contained a letter written by Savarkar to the British. "I will read the last line, which says 'I beg to remain your most obedient servant' and is signed V D Savarkar, which shows he helped the British," Gandhi said at the media interaction during his Bharat Jodo Yatra that is in the last leg in Maharashtra.

He said he was of the view that Savarkar signed the letter out of fear and in doing so, he betrayed Mahatma Gandhi, Sardar Patel, Jawaharlal Nehru and other leaders of the freedom struggle.

Gandhi, Nehru, Patel remained in jail for years, but none of them signed any such letter, he said.

"A copy of this (Savarkar's) letter should be sent to Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) chief Mohan Bhagwat. If (BJP leader) Devendra Fadnavis wants to see it, he can also see," Gandhi added.

On Tuesday, while addressing a rally in Washim district as part of the yatra, Gandhi had called Savarkar a symbol of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and the RSS. "He was jailed in Andaman for two-three years. He started writing mercy petitions," the Congress MP had said.

Soon after that, former Maharashtra chief minister Uddhav Thackeray, whose Shiv Sena faction is in alliance with the Congress, had said he does not agree with Gandhi's views on Savarkar. Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis also claimed that Gandhi has been "shamelessly lying" about Savarkar.

Lok Sabha member Rahul Shewale, who belongs to the Shiv Sena faction led by Chief Minister Eknath Shinde, had on Wednesday slammed Gandhi for his remarks and demanded that the Bharat Jodo Yatra be stopped in the state.

During the media interaction on Thursday, Gandhi dared the State Government, saying, "If it wants to stop the yatra, try and stop."

He also accused the BJP of spreading hatred, fear and violence.

"BJP doesn't speak to farmers and youth...If people felt that this yatra was not needed, lakhs of people would not have come out on the streets in support," he said.

"The yatra has been a learning experience for me and helping me understand people," he added.

On the perception that the position has been unable to take on the BJP, Gandhi said the perception is superficial because the position does not control institutions, media and judiciary.

"This is not a battle between two political parties. Institutions in the country create fairness on the battleground. If you go on the ground, you will understand what the people say," he said.

Showing compassion and affection even to your opponents are Indian values. The yatra is doing the same. You can disagree with the views of your opponent by showing affection and love, he added.

To a question on the Congress and opposition leaders "betraying the ideology" to join the BJP before elections, Gandhi said this will cleanse the opposition.(PTI)
