

NIA raids at over 50 locations

NEW DELHI, Oct 18: The National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Tuesday conducted raids at more than 50 locations in Punjab, Haryana and Rajasthan as part of an investigation against the nexus between terrorists, gangsters and drug traffickers, officials said.

The agency searched the premises of Sampat Nehra of Churu in Rajasthan; Naresh Sethi, a notorious gangster-criminal of Jhajjar in Haryana; Surrender alias Cheeku of Narnaul in Haryana; Naveen alias Bali of Bawana in Delhi; Amit alias Dabang of Tajpur in outer Delhi; Amit Dagar of Gurugram; Sandeep alias Bandar and Salim alias Pistol of north-east Delhi; and Qurban and Rizwan of Khurja in Bulandshahr in Uttar Pradesh. The raids also covered the premises of their associates.

In Punjab's Bathinda, the raids were conducted at the residences of advocate Gurpreet Singh Sidhu, Kabaddi promoter Jagga Jandian and alleged gangster Jaman Singh, police sources said.

Sidhu said his residence was searched by a team of NIA, while Kabaddi promoter Jandian claimed the agency team just took away his mobile phone.

"The raids were aimed to dismantle and disrupt the emerging nexus between terrorists, gangsters and drug smugglers/traffickers based in India and abroad," a National Investigation Agency (NIA) spokesperson said. (PTI)
