Prime Minister Narendra Modi performs Darshan and Pooja of Bhagwan Shree Ramlala Virajman, in Ayodhya on Sunday. (UNI)

Modi reviews progress of temple construction work Lord Ram's rule inspiration behind 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas': PM

Prabhat Ranjan Deen Modi also performed a symbolic coronation of Lord Ram and Goddess Sita at the Ram Katha Park.

Speaking on the occasion, he said "The values inculcated by Lord Ram through his words, thoughts and rule are the inspiration for 'sabka saath, sabka vikas' (collective effort, inclusive growth)."

The PM said Lord Ram's ideals are a beacon of light for people aspiring for a developed India in next 25 years and give the "courage to achieve the most difficult goals".

Asserting that a picture of Lord Ram, his brother Lakshman and Mother Sita is inscribed on the original copy of the Constitution, he said, "That is another guarantee of our constitutional rights."

He, however, stressed that more the resolve of performing duties is strengthened, the more the concept of Ram Rajya will be realised.

"We will have to reiterate our resolve. We have to learn as much as we can from Shri Ram," he said.

The Prime Minister also said he got the deity's "darshan" due to his blessings.

"I am happy that people of Ayodhya, entire UP and world are witnessing this event. As we are celebrating 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsava', the determination like Lord Ram will take the country to new heights," he said referring to the Deepotsav celebrations.

Immediately after reaching Ayodhya for the celebrations, the PM went to the makeshift

Order adding 15 Castes in OSCs kept in abeyance Govt may rechristen OSCs as OBCs, enhance their reservation

Sanjeev Pargal

JAMMU, Oct 23: The Jammu and Kashmir Government is reported to have decided to rechristen Other Social Castes (OSCs) to Other Backward Classes (OBCs) like national level and other States and Union Territories and enhance their reservation to the extent possible. In view of this, the Government has kept in abeyance the order issued yesterday for inclusion of 15 Castes/communities into Social Castes to grant them reservation.

Official sources told the Excelsior that Jammu and Kashmir Government has decided to rechristen OSCs as OBCs and enhance their reservation in Government jobs, educational institutions etc shortly to fulfil long pending demand of the Backward Classes that they were denied reservation in the Union Territory though OBCs enjoyed reservation at national level as well as in all other States and Union Territories.

OSCs have four percent reservation in Jammu and Kashmir and, as per the sources, the percentage of reservation could go up. At the national level and in some States/UTs, OBCs enjoy 27 percent reservation. However, the percentage will be worked out by the Government.

In view of this, the Social Welfare Department today kept in abeyance its order issued yesterday adding 15 more Castes and Communities in the list of OSCs to extend them the benefits of reservation in Government jobs and educational institutions etc.

"In exercise of the powers conferred by first proviso to Clause (o) of Section 2 of Jammu and Kashmir Reservation Act, 2004, the

MHA cancels FCRA licenses of 2 Sonia-led NGOs

NEW DELHI, Oct 23: The action came following investigations carried out by an inter-ministerial committee formed by the MHA in 2020.

"The FCRA licences of the Rajiv Gandhi Foundation and the Rajiv Gandhi Charitable Trust have been cancelled after investigations against these NGOs," an official said.

The investigators covered alleged manipulation of documents while filing income-tax returns.

1500 obsolete Acts to be repealed: Rijiju

SHILLONG, Oct 23: on Saturday.

"It is the Prime Minister's desire to reduce the compliance burden of people, to ensure that they can live as peacefully as possible.

"We (NDA Government at the Centre) have decided to remove all obsolete, archaic laws from the statute, as unnecessary laws are a burden to the common man. We have decided to revoke more than 1,500 obsolete and archaic laws during the winter session of Parliament, Union Law Minister Kiren Rijiju said.

Obsolete laws are impediments in the normal life of common people and do not have relevance in the present time, nor deserve to remain in the statute books, Rijiju told reporters here

Xi wins record 3rd term in power

BEIJING, Oct 23: in-a-five-year Congress.
