No formal felicitation ceremonies in HP

SHIMLA, Aug 27:

The Himachal Pradesh Government has decided to halt the practice of honouring dignitaries by presenting shawls, caps and bouquets during official events till October 31. Chief Minister Sukhinder Singh Sukhu said here today. He said the decision has been taken in view of the ongoing natural calamity concerns. "No formal honouring or felicitation ceremonies will, as per these directives, take place in the Government functions till October 31, 2023," the Chief Minister said. The State Government had also suspended the customary gift of honour accorded to VVIPs during field visits until September 15 this year. These measures collectively reflect the state's commitment to enacting meaningful change and fostering a pragmatic approach towards governance, said a statement issued here. (PTI)
