

Finmin to meet heads of banks on Feb 22

NEW DELHI, Feb 19:

The Finance Ministry has called a meeting of heads of public sector banks and top four private sector lenders to review the progress of the emergency credit line guarantee scheme (ECLGS) to help businesses affected by COVID-19.

The meeting is scheduled to be held on February 22 to review progress on ECLGS and Loan Guarantee Scheme for COVID-Affected Sectors (LGSCAS), sources said.

The meeting, to be chaired by Financial Services Secretary Vivek Joshi, would also see participation from top private sector lenders HDFC Bank, ICICI Bank, Axis Bank and Kotak Mahindra Bank.

Extension of ECLGS and LGSCAS beyond March 31 as well as challenges related to these would be deliberated.

ECLGS was announced as part of the Atmanirbhar Bharat Package in May 2020 with the objective to help businesses including MSMEs to meet their operational liabilities and resume businesses in view of the distress caused by the COVID-19 crisis, by providing banks, 100 per cent guarantee against any losses suffered by them due to non-repayment of the funding by borrowers.

The overall ceiling initially announced for ECLGS was Rs 3 lakh crore which was subsequently enhanced to Rs 4.5 lakh crore.

Subsequently, the Union Budget 2022-23 announced extension validity of the Scheme up to March 2023 and increase in the limit of guaranteed cover of ECLGS by Rs 50,000 crore to a total cover of Rs 5 lakh crore, with the additional amount being earmarked exclusively for the enterprises in hospitality and related sectors.

Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman in the latest Budget said, "Last year, I proposed revamping the credit guarantee scheme for MSMEs. I am happy to announce that the revamped scheme will take effect from 1st April 2023 through the infusion of Rs 9,000 crore in the corpus.

"This will enable additional collateral-free guaranteed credit of Rs 2 lakh crore. Further, the cost of the credit will be reduced by about 1 per cent."(PTI)

Centre committed to redress grievances of minorities: Nalva

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Feb 19: Rajinder Singh Nalva, president BJP Minority Morcha J&K UT, today said that Centre is committed to redress the grievances of minorities and also to achieve the new milestones with respect to the growth and development of J&K.

Nalva, while interacting with people of minority community in Satwari area here, today explained in detail the initiative taken by the Central Government for the Jammu and Kashmir since 2014 after Narendra Modi took reins of the Government. He said various sectors with a plethora of ty people who visit their native town for performance of annual Anatchuterdash function and Maha Yagya or any other religious function do not get any space for accommodation.

The delegation said the security forces pay rent to all other private as well as buildings belonging to religious organization which are under their possession, except the Anantnag Prabhak Committee. It said moreover while PM package employees face shortage of Government accommodation in Kashmir and majority of them are forced to live in private accommodations at the risk of their lives and the space available Nagal Anantnag could be used for accommodation of some of these employees posted in Anantnag area.

The delegation said that the Committee's regular requests for partial vacation of premises has not been paid any heed so far. The delegation made it clear that the community is not averse to staying of security forces there but demand handing over of some portion to the community so that the same could be used by it also. This will pave way for gradual resettlement/ rehabilitation of original inhabitants back to Valley, the delegation added.

The Minister assured the delegation that the issue will be taken up by him with concerned Ministry.
