

NHRC notices to all states, UTs

NEW DELHI, Feb 21: statement said. Strict legal action should be taken against hospitals holding bodies hostage, the NHRC said, referring to another suggestion. Cremation using CNG or electricity at electric crematorium grounds should be free for poor people across India, and all hospitals should have mortuaries to prevent decomposition of bodies are some other suggestions on which the responses have been sought.

All government or private hospitals should be directed to provide free transportation of bodies to residences concerned, the statement said. The report must also contain as to whether the states or UTs have taken steps about disseminating information, raising awareness, sensitisation, and training the staff dealing with the bodies in the humanitarian aspect with a view to tackling the situation of unclaimed dead bodies, the rights panel said.

The Commission has annexed with the notices its advisory on the 'Right to Dignity of Dead' issued during the COVID-19 pandemic to the authorities, officials said. Issuing the notices, the Commission has observed that it is axiomatic that the right to dignity and fair treatment, under Article 21 of the Constitution, is not only available to the living man but also to his dead body.

"Civilization, over the years, coupled with religion, tradition, and cultural practices has influenced the manner in which the dead bodies are being managed, both in times of war and peace. It is at the same time true that different communities and societies pay respect to the dead, through their respective religion and traditional practices and more so, through legal frameworks, whereby it is underlined that honour and respect for the dead body is a basic recognition of inherent human rights of dignity, which an individual possesses prior to his death," the statement said. Wood and other materials required for cremation of bodies should be provided free at all crematorium grounds throughout India, at least for the poor and needy families, the NHRC has sought response on this suggestion, according to the statement. Necessary orders or directions may please be issued to all private hospitals that they may not hold bodies hostage due to non-payment of medical bills by their families or for any other reason, the
