

Under PM Modi, India does not shy away from taking stand: Nadda

NEW DELHI, Feb 22: BJP president J P Nadda said on Wednesday that India under Prime Minister Narendra Modi's leadership does not shy away from taking a stand on complex issues, asserting that he has changed the way the country is looked at globally.

Releasing the book, "Modi: Shaping a Global Order in Flux", Nadda cited India's stand on the Russia-Ukraine war as a classic example of this. India took a stand which may not be acceptable to all countries but is being appreciated by all that the country has taken a stand and stayed with it, he said.

"Unlike the past, India now does not shy from taking positions. For a long time, India has been shying from taking hard positions. Under Prime Minister Modi, India on international issues would take a stand on complex issues, that too from positions of strength," he said.

Indian Government leaders earlier did not "dare" to visit Israel due to domestic vote bank politics while Modi changed it, he said.

"The domestic vote bank politics compelled, and India couldn't develop a relationship with Israel," he said, adding that the Prime Minister visited Israel as well as Palestine.

This shows India is capable of handling two different countries in the best possible manner, the BJP president said.

Modi has also succeeded in de-hyphenating India with Pakistan which was not the case earlier, he said.

India is now seen as much ahead of Pakistan internationally and the neighbouring country is isolated on the issue of terrorism, he claimed.

Relatively less is written on Prime Minister Modi's contribution in changing how India is looked globally, and this book will start a debate, he said.

Nadda said, "It is necessary to understand what was the image of India before Modi ji came to power. The economy was declining, India had an image of a corrupt state, repeated terrorist attacks and a lack of stable government. The very sad part was that the authority of the PM was eroded."

Modi took over in difficult times and has navigated foreign affairs and international relationships in the best possible manner, he said, crediting him for changing the country's image internationally. (PTI)

of Shri. Bal Krishan Wali

"Those we love don't walk away, they walk beside us every day, unseen, unheard, but always near; still loved, still missed and very dear"

As it happened only yesterday, yet a year has gone by since you flew into the voids of eternal journey on 7th March 2022 at Indrapuram, Ghaziabad, leaving us all helplessly nursing the festering wound of your separation in silent prayer. Dearest dear, in more than many ways you have been the architect of what we all are today.

May you rest in peace.
