SC directive to Centre on domestic violence

NEW DELHI, Feb 25: The Supreme Court has asked the Centre to convene a meeting of the Principal Secretaries of all States to look into the issues pertaining to the implementation of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, observing that more than 4.71 lakh cases of domestic violence were pending in the country as on July 2022. Referring to the appointment of Protection Officers under the Act, the Apex Court observed that the overall picture presented before it is "dismal". A Bench of Justices SR Bhat and Dipankar Datta said having one such officer for one district would be grossly inadequate as each one of them would be handling nearly 500-600 cases. "In these circumstances, it would be necessary that the Union of India takes an intensive look into this aspect," the bench observed on Friday while hearing a plea seeking adequate infrastructure across the country for providing effective legal aid to women abused in matrimonial homes and creating shel-
