Exit Polls predict different results

TRIPURA The crucial but tiny State of Tripura which the BJP had grabbed from the CPI(M) in a surprise win in 2018 had exit results from three pollsters which varied substantially. IndiaToday-MyAxis indicated that the BJP would get between 36-45 seats in the 60-member assembly by garnering 45 per cent of the popular vote, most of it in the plains where Bengalis live, giving it a spectacular win.

have to agree on paper and on the floor of the House that a new state will be created," he had said. MEGHALAYA Both the Times Now ETG Exit and India Today-My Axis polls predicted a hung house in the state described as 'Scotland of the east', even though Meghalaya's Chief Minister Conrad Sangma remained confident of victory. "We are happy that exit poll predictions are in line with our belief that we will get more seats than what we did last time ... We are keeping all our options and will do what is in the best interest of the state," Sangma said, in an indication that post-poll alliances were being thought of.

said residential houses. During the course of investigation proceeding U/S 24/25 UA(P) Act was initiated," he said. "Later proper accord of approval for attachment of houses was received" he added. "Besides, the charge sheet of the case was presented before the Court in December last year against 13 accused persons including active militants of TRF and LeT for the logical judicial determination. In its investigation of the case is still going on u/s 173(8)," he said.

SC raps MoD over OROP arrears

Centre for payment of total arrears of OROP. But on January 20, the Ministry issued a communication that the arrears shall be paid in four yearly instalments which has been challenged by a group of ex-servicemen. Observing that the sanctity of the judicial process has to be maintained, a bench headed by Chief Justice DY Chandrachud asked the Ministry to "set its house in order" and directed the Secretary to file a personal affidavit explaining his position.

extending time... "You tell your secretary that we are going to take action against him for issuing that communication. The sanctity of the judicial process has to be maintained. Either the secretary withdraws it, or we are going to issue a contempt notice to the Ministry of Defense and that will be very serious," the bench also comprising justices PS Narasimha and JB Pardiwala said.

India Today-MyAxis predicted that NPP would bag 18-24 seats, short of majority, forcing it to look towards other parties to shore up figures. It also gave UDP 8-12 seats, Congress 6-12 seats, TMC 5-9 seats and the BJP 4-8 seats. The Zee News-Matrise exit poll predicted that the National People's Party will retain Meghalaya with 21 to 26 seats. Also it predicted 8-13 seats for Trinamool and 6-11 for BJP.

NAGALAND In formerly insurgency-hit Nagaland, the NDPP is slated to get 28-34 seats with a vote share of 33 per cent, according to India Today-My Axis. The poll also gives BJP a surprising 16 per cent vote share and 10-14 seats, possibly coming from eastern Nagaland where it focused its campaigning. Congress is predicted to get 10 per cent votes and between 1-2 seats and the rump of the Naga People's Front which remained after some 21 MLAs joined NDPP is forecast to get 13 per cent vote share and between 3-8 seats.
