He was the "Founder Force" and source of inspiration behind the development of educational institutions in Jammu. He transformed his visionary idea into a 'reality' when in 1969, he established a High School in Gandhi Nagar area with a very small roll of Two Hundred And Ten(210) students only. His "Personal Dedication" and his "Team of True Scholars" made all the earnest efforts, to develop this institution into a "Model One Institution" in the state.

After the sad demise of the Founder Father in 1983, his Son, Rameshwar Mengi Ji, took over as its Principal w.e.f. 17.05.1983 when there were approximately 350 students on its roll. At present the strength of Students (Boys & Girls) in Shiksha Niketan, Gandhi Nagar (Jammu) is about 650, and a high qualified and professionally trained team of about 45 faculty members is working tirelessly to impart the Quality Education to its Students. A small and beautiful educational plant : "Shiksha Niketan", planted by this visionary and philanthropist noble soul, has now grown to a well-flourished huge "Educational Tree" with its sister concern branches:

Firstly, Shiksha Niketan Sr. Sec. School, Jeevan Nagar- Jammu established in 1993 and affiliated to J&K Board of School Education is having the number of about 5000 Students (Boys & Girls) from 1st to 12th on its roll and the highly qualified & well experienced Staff of about 225 members. Shiksha Niketan, Jeevan Nagar can easily be termed as One among the Top-ranking Institutions of Jammu Province.

Secondly, in the year of 2003, R.M College of Education, Chowadhi-Sainik Colony - Jammu
