Main shooter behind grenade attack on Punjab Police intelligence HQ arrested: NIA

NEW DELHI, Jan 25: A terror operative who was the main shooter in the grenade attack on the Punjab Police intelligence headquarters in Mohali last year has been arrested from Uttar Pradesh, an official of the National Investigation Agency (NIA) said on Wednesday. Deepak Ranga, a resident of Surakpur in Jhajjar district of Haryana, was arrested from Gorakhpur Wednesday morning, a spokesperson of the federal anti-terror agency said. The official said Deepak Ranga had been on the run since the rocket-propelled grenade (RPG) attack on the intelligence headquarters in Mohali in May last year. (PTI)

Jaishankar meets special advisor to Japan PM

NEW DELHI, Jan 25: Japanese Prime Minister Fumio Kishida. External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar on Wednesday met the special advisor to the Japanese premier and discussed the impact of Japanese technology on India's growth and progress. "Glad to meet Dr. Masafumi Mori, Special Advisor to the Prime Minister of Japan. Our discussion focused on the impact of Japanese technology on India's growth and progress," Jaishankar said in a tweet. The High Speed Rail project can make an even bigger difference than the Metro and Suzuki collaboration, he said. "We also exchanged views on the opportunities for the two countries to collaborate in third markets," Jaishankar added. Mori is special advisor to
