

Different educational institutions celebrate Republic Day with nationalistic zeal

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Jan 27: Different educational institutions here celebrated 74th Republic Day with nationalistic zeal.

Prof. Nazir Ahmad Ganai extended Republic Day greetings to teaching, non-teaching staff and students of the University. Prof. J.P. Sharma, Former Vice Chancellor, SKUAST-Jammu and Dr. Sumati Sharma, Former Additional Director, DRDO, New Delhi were special guests.

among those present on the occasion. GDC Paloura celebrated 74th Republic Day and Principal of the College Dr. Ashu Vashisht hoisted the National Flag which was followed by recitation of National Anthem.

Govt. Degree College, Ghagwal. Unfurling of National Flag was done by the chief guest, Dr. Sujata Sathia, Principal of the College. This was followed by recitation of National Anthem by the students. As it was Basant Panchami also, the Principal, staff and students paid their deepest respects and showered flowers on Mata Saraswati.

Government Polytechnic College Kathua celebrated Republic Day with patriotic fervor. Vinod Azad, Principal of the College hoisted the National Flag.

Government ITI Udhampur celebrated 73rd Republic Day with patriotic fervor. Chairman IMC of ITI Udhampur, Arun P Gupta unfurled the National Flag and took salute which was followed by recitation of National Anthem.

Avalanche hits Paddar village Met office forecasts wet weather on Jan 30

Excelsior Correspondent

SRINAGAR/ JAMMU, Jan 27: An Avalanche hit Machail Mata village in Paddar area of Kishtwar today while weatherman today said that mainly dry weather will prevail in Kashmir and most of the areas in Jammu region till Sunday and has forecast wet weather for Monday.

Dignitaries paying tribute to martyr Capt Sunil Choudhary at Kathua on Friday.

Rich tribute paid to Capt Sunil Choudhary

Excelsior Correspondent

KATHUA, Jan 27: Rich tributes were paid to martyr Capt Sunil Choudhary on his martyrdom day today.

Delegation of SABLO handing over a memorandum to Additional CEO, SASB, Rahul Singh at Jammu

SABLO delegation calls on Additional CEO SASB

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Jan 27: A delegation of Shri Amarnath Bhargavi Langer Organisation (SABLO) led by its president Rajesh Gupta called on Rahul Singh, Additional Chief Executive Officer, Shri Amarnath Shrine Board (SASB) today and highlighted various demands before him.

Army evacuates girl from cut-off village in Baramulla

Excelsior Correspondent

SRINAGAR, Jan 27: The Indian Army on Friday evacuated a 19-year-old girl after she had fallen unconscious at a cut-off village in Jammu and Kashmir's Baramulla district.

Thieves arrested, stolen items recovered

Excelsior Correspondent

KATRA, Jan 27: Police claimed to have solved a theft case in Katra town that took place last week and recovered the stolen items besides arresting two accused.

Seminar on 'Community Policing' begins at SKPA

Excelsior Correspondent

UDHAMPUR, Jan 27: Two-day seminar on "Community Policing" began today at SK Police Academy, Jammu University and faculty from SKPA will deliver lectures to the participants.

Participants of SKPA seminar posing for group photograph.

Release flour quota of migrants

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Jan 27: The representative of Relief holders and over-aged youth, Sunil Pandita has expressed grave concern over the suspending of flour quota of migrants for last over five months and demanded same be released before the Maha Shivratri festival falling in next month.

Army evacuates girl from cut-off village in Baramulla

Excelsior Correspondent

SRINAGAR, Jan 27: The Indian Army on Friday evacuated a 19-year-old girl after she had fallen unconscious at a cut-off village in Jammu and Kashmir's Baramulla district.