Different property, matrimonial laws affront to nation's unity: Centre on Uniform Civil Code

NEW DELHI, June 15: "This provision (Article 44) is provided to effect integration of India by bringing communities on the common platform on matters which are at present governed by diverse personal laws. This Article is based on the concept that in matters of inheritance, right to property, maintenance and succession, there will be a common law. Article 44 divests religion from social relations and personal law. Citizens belonging to different religious and denominations follow different property and matrimonial laws which is an affront to the nation's unity", the Centre had said last year in its affidavit in the Supreme Court on the Uniform Civil Code matter.

The Law Commission on Wednesday initiated a fresh consultation process on Uniform Civil Code (UCC) by seeking views from stakeholders, including public and recognised religious organisations, on the politically sensitive issue.

In an affidavit filed on October 13, 2022 on a petition filed by Ashwini Kumar Udadhay seeking uniform guidelines for 'adoption and guardianship' for all citizens, the Union Ministry of Law and Justice has said that Article 44 (UCC) is to strengthen the object of "Secular Democratic Republic" as enshrined in the preamble of the Constitution.

Article 44 of the Constitution, part of the Directive Principle of State Policy, provides that the State shall endeavour to secure for the citizens a UCC throughout the territory of India.

The Centre has said in the affidavit that the expression "Uniform Civil Code" denotes the field of personal law relating to marriage, divorce, maintenance, custody and guardianship of children, inheritance and succession and adoption.

The ministry has told the apex court that in view of the importance of the subject matter and sensitivity involved which requires in-depth study of the provisions of various personal laws governing different communities, the Centre requested the Law Commission of India to undertake examination of various issues relating to UCC and to make recommendation thereof.

It had said that Parliament exercises sovereign right to frame laws and no outside authority can issue a direction to enact a law.

"It is a settled position of law and has been held in the catena of judgments that under our constitutional scheme, Parliament exercises sovereign power to enact laws and no outside power or authority can issue a direction to enact a particular piece of legislation. (PTI)
