Lakhs of old age persons, PwDs, widows deprived of pension for last 3 months

Govind Sharma

JAMMU, June 17: Lakhs of people belonging to weaker sections such as old age persons, widows/divorcees, women in distress, transgender and persons with disabilities (PwDs) are struggling for their survival and are on roads against the J&K Government which has failed to release Rs 1000 pension in their favour since February this year.

For years together, Rs 1000 in the name of financial assistance was being provided to these people by the Social Welfare Department of Jammu and Kashmir under its Integrated Social Security Scheme but for

Samba, Baramulla, Ramban maintain rank

Composite ranking of 9 districts improves, declines in respect of 8 distts under DGGI

Index changed public perception towards governance: Govt

Mohinder Verma

JAMMU, June 17: The composite ranking of nine districts of Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir has improved in District Good Governance Index (DGGI) 3.0 as compared to 2.0 while as ranking of eight districts has witnessed decline and three districts have maintained the ranking. However, the ranking of districts through DGGI has changed perception of the public towards governance and also built up confidence in Government policies.

As per the comparison of composite rank 2.0 and 3.0 released by the Government, Jammu, Srinagar, Rajouri, Bandipora, Anantnag, improved from 9 to 3; Rajouri district's from 10 to 4; Bandipora's from 13 to 5 and Anantnag district's from 17 in DGGI 2.0 to 6 in DGGI 3.0. Budgetam's ranking has declined from 5 in DGGI 2.0 to 7 in DGGI 3.0; Pulwama's declined from one to 8; Doda's from 3 to 9; Ganderbal district's from 8 to 10; Shopian's from 4 to 12. However, Udhampur's ranking has improved from 15 to 13; Kupwara's from 19 to 14; Kathua district's from 16 to 15. The composite ranking of India wouldn't have been partitioned if Bose was there: Doval

NEW DELHI, June 17:

Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose had the audacity to fearlessly challenge the British and India would not have been partitioned if he was there at that time, National Security Advisor Ajit Doval said today.

Doval said Bose was determined to fight the British for India's Independence and never wanted to beg for freedom, adding he not only wanted to end political subjugation but felt that the political, social, economic and cultural mindset of the people has to be changed and "they should feel like free birds in the sky".

The National Security Advisor (NSA) said this while delivering the first Netaji
