

Sakshi, Babita engage in war of words over wrestlers' protest against WFI chief

NEW DELHI, June 18: In an ugly war of words, Sakshi Malik accused former wrestler and BJP leader Babita Phogat of siding with the government during their protest against the WFI chief while the latter claimed that the Rio Games bronze medalist has become a "Congress' puppet".

Malik and her husband Satyawart Kadian had on Saturday asserted that the wrestlers' protest was not politically motivated and in no way it was inspired by Congress as it was BJP leaders Babita and Teerath Rana, who had helped them in taking police permission for the sit-in at Jantar Mantar.

On Sunday, quoting their Saturday video, Malik tweeted that they had taken a dig at Babita and Rana about how they tried to use the wrestlers for their selfish motives but the satire was not understood for the lack of sense of humour.

"In the video (posted on Saturday), we had commented Teerath Rana and Babita Phogat were trying to use wrestlers for their selfish motives and how when the wrestlers were in trouble, they opted to sit on the lap of the government."

"We are definitely in trouble, but the sense of humour should not become so weak that a joke cracked on the powerful could not be understood," the tweet read further.

Babita, who had mediated between the wrestlers and the government during the grapplers' three-day protest in January, tweeted that she had nothing to do with their protest since she was against the agitation on road from day one.

"It pained me and also made me laugh when I saw the video posted by my younger sister and her husband. Let me make it clear that the letter, seeking police permission, does not carry my signature. I have nothing to do with that," she wrote, completely pulling herself away from the protest. (PTI)
