

President Murmu pays obeisance at Golden Temple

AMRITSAR (Punjab), Mar 9:

President Droupadi Murmu paid obeisance at the Golden Temple here on Thursday.

Tight security arrangements were made in the city for the president's day-long visit.

Accompanied by Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann and Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee (SGPC) chief Harjinder Singh Dhani, the president paid obeisance at the Golden Temple and listened to "kirtan". She also took "karah prasad".

This was her first visit to the city after becoming president.

After paying obeisance, she went to the "langar hall" (community kitchen) and visited the area where utensils are washed.

Afterwards, she went to the Information Centre of the Golden Temple where she was presented a robe of honour, a set of Sikh religious books, a replica of the Golden Temple, and a set of woolen shawls.

The president is also scheduled to visit Jallianwala Bagh, Durgiana Temple and Bhagwan Valmiki Ram Tirath Sthal.

During her visit to the Golden Temple, the president was given two memorandums by the SGPC, the apex religious body of the Sikhs, including one pertaining to the release of Sikh political prisoners, its general secretary Gurcharan Singh Grewal said.

The SGPC has been seeking the release of Sikh prisoners who, it claims, continue to be in jails despite completion of their sentences.

On the "Bandi Singhs", the SGPC has been demanding the release of Sikh prisoners through democratic means for a long time,

President Droupadi Murmu paid obeisance at Sri Harmandir Sahib during her visit to the holy city of Amritsar on Thursday.

Harjinder Singh Dhani said in the memorandum.

"...We feel that by not releasing the Sikh prisoners, they are being discriminated against and their human rights are being violated grossly in the world's largest democracy," he said.

"We demand from you to take cognizance of this important issue of release of Sikh prisoners and give necessary directions to the Government of India and concerned State Governments for their release," Dhani wrote to the President.(PTI)
