

Can't allow temples of democracy to be sullied: VP

MEERUT (UTTAR PRADESH), Mar 11: Vice President Jagdeep Dhanekar on Saturday attacked Congress leader Rahul Gandhi for his comments regarding microphones of Opposition being turned off in Parliament, saying there cannot be a bigger lie to set a narrative. He said such a thing was done during the "black chapter" of Emergency, but it is not possible now. Temples of democracy cannot be allowed to be outraged, said the vice president and lamented that "some people" are trying to undermine the achievements of the country due to their short-sightedness. "Democratic values are important and we cannot allow temples of democracy to be outraged as we are the mother of democracy," Dhanekar, who is the chairman of Rajya Sabha, said while addressing a gathering at the Chaudhary Charan Singh University here. On Gandhi's microphone remarks, the vice president, without naming him, said, "There cannot be a bigger lie when someone tries to set a narrative by saying that in the biggest panchayat, the Parliament, mics are switched off."

ments of this great nation," he said at an 'ayurveda mahakumbh' at the varsity. The Congress leader told British parliamentarians in London on Monday that functioning microphones in Lok Sabha are often silenced against the Opposition. He had made the comment during an event organised by veteran Indian-origin Opposition Labour Party MP Virendra Sharma within the House of Commons complex. Dhanekar said it was his constitutional duty "to indicate to the world at large that mics are not switched off in India's Parliament." "There was a time when it was done and it was a black chapter that we call Emergency, but it is not possible now," he said. The vice president also said it is "saddening" to see that some people say "what is going on in the country". Which other country can claim that their judiciary acts with lightning speed, but "our Supreme Court does work like this", he said. "We are the world's most functional democracy, no other country can make such a claim that they have democracy from panchayat (grassroots) to municipality to state and up to the Centre. There can be opinions but it (India's democracy) is vibrant and functional," Dhanekar said.

had also expressed regret that democratic parts of the world, including the US and Europe, have failed to notice that a "large chunk of democracy has come undone". (PTI)

During his UK visit, Gandhi had also alleged that the media, the institutional frameworks, judiciary, Parliament is all under attack. He
