pletes 100 years of independence. He said this at eighth Governing Council meeting of NITI Aayog in New Delhi.

Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha also attended the meeting of NITI Aayog and said Jammu and Kashmir Union Territory is on the move to contribute in making India 'Viksit Bharat' by 2047.

Sinha said Jammu and Kashmir is witnessing inclusive, integrated and speedy development.

A tweet by the Office of LG

J&K after day-long meeting of

NITI Aayog in New Delhi, said:

"Attended the 8th Governing Council Meeting of NITI Aayog in New Delhi chaired by Prime Minister Narendra Modi. With inclusive, integrated and speedy development, Jammu and Kashmir UT is on the move to contribute in realising the vision of making India 'Viksit Bharat' by 2047".

Non-communication of entry below benchmark in ACR violative of Art 14: HC

Mohinder Verma

JAMMU, May 27: The High Court of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh has held that non-communication of entry below the benchmark recorded in the Annual Confidential Reports (ACRs) of the Government servants is violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India and fundamental principles of natural justice.

Moreover, when the entry is communicated to officer he should have the right to make a representation against such entry and representation should be decided by an authority higher than the one who made the entry within a reasonable period and in a fair manner.

This significant judgment has been delivered by Justice Wasim Sadiq Nargal while issuing directions for granting promotion to the petitioner-Ashok Kumar Sharma as Additional DIG BSF retrospectively from the date the benefit has been given to his juniors with higher pension and balance of arrears of pay.

The petitioner, who had unblemished meritorious service to his credit, was not considered for promotion as Additional DIG BSF twice by the Departmental Promotion Committee on the ground that ACR for some years was downgraded as such he approached the High Court seeking quashment of orders dated 80.4.2002 and 21.04.2003 whereby respondents were promoted to the post of Additional DIG and further seeking direction for promoting him to the post of Additional DIG with effect from the date his juniors were promoted.

After hearing counsels for the petitioner and respondents, Justice Wasim Sadiq Nargal observed, "the performance of every Government servant is assessed annually through his Confidential Report, which is an important document providing the basic and vital inputs for assessing the performance of the Government servant and for assessing his suitability for his further advancement in his
